Senate Plans To Make Changes In Tax Measure

Senator Huber Announces Scheme Of Adjusting Revenue Provisions

MORE MONEY FOR CITIES

Best Features Of Three Previous Bills Included In New Proposal

By Associated Press

Madison—Readjustment of rates in the finance committee general income tax bill probably will be made in the senate by amendment, Senator Henry Huber, chairman of the committee said Thursday in a statement. He declared that rates in the measure "are exactly as furnished by the tax commission" and are subject to "readjustment as further calculations may show to be necessary, these readjustments to be made by amendment.

Senator Huber declared that "This bill fulfills the party promise of a readjustment on the tax burdens. It relieves farm property about 10 per cent of the total tax and city property almost as much by repealing all state mill taxes. It repeals the personal property offset as to corporation and readjusts the income tax rates on individuals by putting a greater share of the burden on large incomes."

MORE MONEY FOR CITIES

Senator Huber said that under the distribution plan, the tax commission estimates that counties will receive more money than under the present law and that the municipalities will receive more than now. He said that the bill embodies the best features of the three previous measures." An analysis of the bill by E. E. Witte director of the legislative reference library was presented by Senator Huber. This analysis said that rates are estimated to yield $15,000,000 in a normal year, of which $4,000,000 are raised from corporations, and the remainder from individuals.

LESS FOR CORPORATIONS

By levying a flat 4 per cent rate on corporations. Mr. Witte says that the bill will make "material reduction in the rate of taxation for these institutions."

It is pointed out that through amendments to the present law the audit of back income tax returns can be continued to 1915 instead of 1917 as now. On these back returns interest at the rate of 6 per cent is to be charged by the commission. Several hundred thousand dollars are looked for through application of this new section, according to the estimates.

No changes are made in the present law as to organization and duties of the tax commission, the assessors of income or property assessors, the statement says.

ZABEL DECISION IS COMING ON JUNE 6

By Associated Press

Milwaukee — The trial of Winfred C. Zabel former district attorney of Milwaukee-co. Attorneys Arthur W. Richter and Oscar M. Nebel, and Russell Shipley, sales agent, charged in an indictment returned by the grand jury with attempted extortion and conspiracy closed shortly before 6 o'clock Wednesday.

A decision will be handed down on June 16, Judge Fred Beglinger, of Oshkosh, presiding, announced when the prosecution and the defense had closed their testimony. The defendants, after the state had introduced its rebuttal testimony, waived the arguments which special prosecutor Francis E. McGovern refused to do, saying that if a "case is worth trying it is worth arguing." Mr. McGovern urged that the court hear the arguments at a later date but Judge Beglinger asserted that he could not do this and suggested a night session.

A compromise was finally affected the court asking the prosecution to prepare its argument in the form of a written brief, to be submitted to the defendants by next Monday and answered or not answered by the defendants as they see fit.

PSYCHOLOGIST SEES END OF JAZZ PERIOD NEARING

West Chester, Pa.—Young women are beginning to find the jazz period too shallow and are turning to things of more healthy type, Dr. Frank Paxon Bye professor of psychology and director of Darlington seminary, said Thursday in an address at the commencement exercises of the institution.

"The girl of today," said Dr. Bye "has departed from the Victorian period, but she doesn't know what direction to take. The modern girl really is stepping out, although not fully aware of the fact.

"Women are reaching a more equal basis with men, doing the same things as men. This stage of growing equality may reach the point when proposals of marriage may come from women as well as men. Marriage will be regarded in the sense of a business partnership as well as a romantic phase of life.

AL SMITH WILL ALTER ASPECT OF 1924 FIGHT

New York Governor's Decision On Dry Law Will Determine Issue

BULLETIN

By Associated Press

Albany, N. Y.—Drys, wets and prohibition neutrals marched on the capitol Thursday primed with last minute arguments with which they hoped to influence Governor Smith's action on the legislative bill for repeal of the Mullan-Gage state prohibition enforcement act, which he must sign, veto, or kill by failure to act between now and midnight Sunday.

Numerically the drys got the jump on the opponents beginning to pack the assembly chamber, where the public hearing on the repeal was to be held, more than four hours before the time set for the governor's appearance.

Albany, N. Y. — Governor Al Smith will do more on Friday next to shape the destiny of the Democratic party in the nation and alter the whole aspect of the presidential contest of 1924 than will any single Democrat or group of Democrats in the year that must elapse before the national conventions are held.

The issue before the New York state governor today is not whether the Mullan-Gage law enforces prohibition by making one half of one per cent of alcohol the legal definition of what the eighteenth amendment of the federal constitution meant by the word 'intoxicating." Nor is the issue whether the empire state is deprived of a statute under which arrests and prosecutions can be made concurrently with the federal law.

QUESTION OF STATE RIGHTS

All this, of course, is the subject of the hearing at which the pro and con of the state law will be argued together with lots of contention about the obligation of New York state "to stay in the union" as President Harding in effect expressed himself in his letter of advice to New York state. But the whole problem is simply and absolutely reducible to one question: Is Al Smith "wet" or "dry." To put it another way: Will Al Smith give comfort to the "wets" or to the "drys?" The Mullen-Gage law is an incident in the larger controversy of state rights. Are the several states obliged to agree with the federal congress in the latter's definition that one half of one per cent of alcohol is "intoxicating?" It isn't a matter of repealing the eighteenth amendment itself. That amendment is imbedded too deeply to be repealed at this time. But the Supreme court of the United States has indicated that congress can define the words "intoxicating" as used in the federal amendment. If Al Smith believed in the one half of one per cent definition he would be in duty bound to keep the Mullan-Gage law on the books by vetoing the repeal act of the legislature.

What will be basic in the governor's mind when he reaches his conclusions? He will act at once—just after the hearing is over on Friday. He refuses to say a word about his intentions for he is trying to keep an open mind until the end of the hearing. But all the things that will be said at the hearing can be dismissed as legal and academic. The answer will be politics pure and simple whether Governor Smith wants it that way or not. It will influence his mind and his decision. And here is the political situation as it effects Al Smith:

SOUTH IN DOUBT

The prospective Republican nominee Warren Harding is 100 per cent dry. Will the Democratic party do the same or will it heed the upheaval in the populous states of the East where prohibition is the livest political question in a generation? Al Smith has been impressed by the fact that the solid South's electorial vote plus the votes of New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Delaware and Maryland would be about enough to elect a Democratic president of the United States. Would the solid South stick? The South, it is answered, would stick by a program of letting the states individually fix their own minimum alcoholic content which is what Governor Smith said in his letter to Mr. Fess of Ohio. What other issue is there? What other chance have the Democrats but to take advantage of it? This is the way the leaders of the Empire state Democracy, including Al Smith, look at the national political situation.

Would Al Smith increase his chances of becoming the national standard-bearer on that program? If he has any chance at all it is on staying "wet." For if the Democrats prefer to take the "dry" side of the dilemma, they would take another candidate who hasn't the "wet" record of Al Smith. Most every man wants to be president who has achieved the prominence that Al Smith has. He ends his political career if he keeps the Mullan-Gage law on the books—for Tammany will be divided and will desert him and he could neither depend on their support at the next national convention nor on the argument that he would surely carry New York state's electorial vote. If he isn't ambitious, he will veto the repeal. People of New York state who know Al Smith and who know human nature too expect him to stay "wet."

Three Pullman Car Cities To House Shriners

By Associated Press

Washington—Aladdin cities designed to house from 30,000 to 40,000 persons are springing up just outside of Washington in preparation for the Shriners's convention next week. They are located near Alexandria, Va. and Benning and Eckington, Md. with pullman cars by the hundreds forming the "homes" of the inhabitants.

Except for the peculiar type of houses these "towns" are to be models. They have their own water and sewerage systems, playgrounds and public baths as well as their own police and fire departments. Dining car restaurants will operate day and night and shuttle trains will be run direct from the "towns" to Washington.

Shriners from the south and southwest who do not find accommodations in the capital will be housed at the Alexandria "town" while those from the east and northwest will live aboard Pullmans at Benning and Eckington.

WETS PUT OFF VOTE ON DRY LAW REPEAL

Action On Bill For State Referendum On 18th Amendment Postponed In Assembly

By Associated Press

Madison — State affairs committee bill providing for a statewide referendum vote on the question of repealing the 18th amendment to the federal constitution was up for consideration in the assembly Thursday, but the wet forces stayed off action on account of the large number of absent members. Assemblyman Lindahl of Superior, wet leader, moved that the resolution be laid over until next Thursday, the motion prevailing 37 to 30.

The action followed the laying over of several other bills and led Assemblyman Tuffley of Grant-co to remark sarcastically that he could not see why the assembly does not postpone the whole calendar until next week."

The assembly debated at some length and finally killed the Millar bill empowering the board of normal regents to grant bachelor degrees in education to normal students who complete a four year teacher training course. The assembly previously voted down a sub-amendment by Assemblyman Whelan of Buffalo restricting the provisions of the bill to the Milwaukee Normal. In opposing the amendment, Assemblyman Matheson of Janesville said he could see no reason why the legislature should discriminate in favor of the Milwaukee school. He charged that the amendment was the result of efforts of Milwaukee lobbyists. After defeat of the amendment Mr. Matheson moved for indefinite postponment of the bill which carried 37 to 28.

MINERS IN RUHR RETURN TO WORK

Strikes Show Necessity For Stronger Police Force In Coal District

By Associated Press

Duesseldorf—The Ruhr strikes, affecting a half million workers, have apparently all but run their courses. The men are returning to their labors by the thousands and it is predicted that by next week most of them will have so far recovered from the effects of the recent disturbances that they will go back to the plants.

The need for an adequate police force, called strikingly to the attention of the authorities by the recent serious demonstrations is to be met by reorganization by local police. These forces will subject to the restrictions of the French.

SEEK INTERPRETATION OF U. S. ANTI-TRUST LAW

St. Paul, Minn.—A decree setting forth the extent to which the railway transportation act of 1920 relieves the railroads from the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law was sought here Thursday in United States circuit court of appeals by Solicitor General James M. Beck of Washington.

The particular case which came before the court on the solicitor general's action was the government's suit to break up the Southern Pacific Central Pacific commission. Mr. Beck expected to present a United States Supreme Court decision for the dissolution of the two roads and to ask the circuit court for a decree carrying out the higher court's mandate.

CITY HONORS WAR HEROES

G. A. R. RIDES FIRST TIME IN AVENUE PARADE

Aged Veterans Choose Autos So All Comrades Could Be In Parade

Memorial day exercises here Wednesday opened with the parade on College-ave at 1:30 in the afternoon, but one of its customary features was changed. The Civil war veterans who always had marched through the downtown district were conveyed this time in automobiles. This was done so all could be in the parade, as there were a few who were unable to endure the walk in the hot sun. Lothar G. Graef acted as marshal of the day, using an automobile to convey him up and down the line of march.

The walks were lined with a throng of thousands all along the parade route, and there were few exceptions in paying respect to the flags under escort and to the veterans who were sharing in the ceremonies in memory of their deceased comrads. Here and there a few men forgot to remove their hats, but the number was few.

POLICE HEAD LINE

The parade was headed by a police escort in charge of Chief George T. Prim. The 121st Field Artillery band followed. Other organizations of the first section were Company D, 127th infantry, boy scouts, girl scouts, American legion and American legion auxiliary.

Automobiles conveying the officers of the day, the singers and W. B. McGillan of Green Bay, the speaker, headed the second section. The speaker's car was driven by a naval veteran in uniform and contained a naval orderly assigned by Mr. McGillan, who is a lieutenant-commander of the naval reserve force. The officer was attired in the white uniform of his rank. Automobiles containing the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Womans Relief corps and J. T. Reeve circle were next in line. The Spanish-American war veterans marched behind these.

Parade units marched into the chapel, where sections were reserved for them. The band occupied the stage and played during the exercises which are described elsewhere in this issue.

MARCH TO CEMETERY

The line again was formed after the indoor program was concluded and the march made on Union and Pacific-sts to Riverside cemetery.

The main section of the parade proceeded to the G. A. R. plot, where musical numbers were presented and an address was given by Commander J. D. Hanchett of the G. A. R. A rifle squad from Company D fired a salute over the graves after they had been decorated, and a bugler sounded taps.

Soldiers of the World war marched to the American legion burial plot, where Comander Henry J. Pettigrew of Oney Johnston post conducted the ceremony according to the legion ritual, assisted by the Rev. C. W. Cross, chaplain of the post. A rifle salute also was fired over the graves located there.

Women of J. T. Reeve circle and the sailor contingent of the American legion had marched to the river bank, where a beautiful ceremony was carried out. Lieut.-Commander McGillan assisted. A boat anchored on the river contained singers, a violinist and flower girls. Selections were rendered, after which flowers were strewn on the water by the girls. A wreath also was laid on the waters and carried away by the current, as a token of respect to deceased sailors and marines. Sailors fired a rifle volley.

PETROGRAD THEATER FIRE TAKES LIVES

By Associated Press

Helsingfores, Finland — The Petrograd opera house was burned Wednesday night and many in the audience were killed during a panic strucken rush for the exits according to a Central News dispatch received here.

The dress of one of the performers caught fire and the flames quickly spread to the scenery after the curtain was lowered but panic had already seized the audience and there was a wild rush to exits. The dispatch gives no details as to the number of casualties, other than the statement that "many were killed and more injured."

The efforts of the fire brigade were fruitless and the building was destroyed.

U.S. Army Man Freed By Bandits

By Associated Press

Tientsin—Hope for the speedy release of all the foreign captives held by the bandits of Paotzuku mountain brightened almost to assurance Thursday with the news that Maj. Robert A. Allen, U. S. A. and W. Smith of Manchester, England, had been freed unconditionally, and that the prisoners remaining in the impregnable fortress at the summit of the mountain, Maj. Roland W. Pinger, U. S. A. and Lee Solomon, American, had been moved to a lower level.

A message from Tsaochwang said that "negotiations are going on favorably."

In a letter to the Associated Press, written before he was moved down from the summit, Major Pinger expressed gratitude that his parents had been kept informed of his situation.

PLENTY TO EAT

"While we can see for sixty miles around" he wrote, "we hear only what little gossip percolates from the temples where the other foreigners are stationed. None of the bandit chiefs come up to the top. We three are kept busy, correspondence taking a substantial time of the day.

"With plenty of food and comfortable cots we cannot help comparing our lots with the Chinese children captives here. Every time we try to give them food the bandits snatch it away."

Major Pinger said he was preparing a detailed narrative of his experiences for the American press.

SOVIETS CONSIDER BRITISH DEMANDS

Curzon Wants Russ Representatives Withdrawn From Persia, Afghanistan

By Associated Press

Moscow—The Soviet government is gravely considering the latest demands of Great Britain in the Anglo-Russian dispute which are reported to include insistence upon withdrawal of Russian representatives from Persia and Afghanistan, where they have been accused of anti-British propaganda. The tone of the official press indicates that Russia has already yielded as far as is considered possible.

"The whole affair now rests with British public opinion," says the "Izvestia" in declaring that the appetite of Lord Curzon, the British secretary for foreign affairs," is growing as he eats "and that he is striving for a break.

The crux of affairs seems to be Lord Curzon's demand for the recall of Shumatsky, Russian representative in Persia and Liet Raskolinikov, representative at Kabul, Afghanistan, and disciplinary punishment for M. Rothstein former Russian representative in Persia who only recently was elevated to a post in the commissariat of foreign affairs.

FORMER U. S. AGENT VIOLATES DRY LAW

Glen Falls, N. Y.—Ralph Hachmeister, former United States custom officer on the Canadian border and until about a year ago, a terror to rum runners in the northern part of the state, is one of five Plattsburg men held in jail Thursday by a United States commissioner on a charge of violating the Volstead act.

The men were arrested at a farm near here and four automobiles, which federal officers claim were filled with liquor were seized.

ITALIAN REDS ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY CHARGES

London—Menotti Serrati, member of the Italian chamber of deputies and other prominent socialists have been acquitted of a charge of conspiracy against the state and have been discharged, says a central news dispatch from Milan.

Signor Serrati, director of the socialist newspaper "Avanti," was arrested in March shortly after he returned to Milan from Russia where he acted as a Socialist commissioner at the session of the third internationale. Out of this meeting grew a manifesto to Italians urging a union of the Socialists and Communists in preparation for a revolt. Returning to Milan, Serrati found that his radical policies had been disavowed by the staff of his newspaper, whereupon he put communists in their places. Both editor and staff were subsequently arrested.

BEWARE OF FOE REACHING FOR HEART OF U. S.

McGillan Exhorts Audience To Patriotism In Memorial Day Address

The commission of the falling soldiers on Flanders' fields, "To you from flaming hands we throw the torch; be yours to hold it high," and the exhortation of Lincoln to dedicate one's self to the unfinished task begun by the forefathers of this nation must become a part of the creed and mission of every American if he has learned well the lesson of patriotism.

Such was the message of James H. McGillan of Green Bay, who gave the Memorial day address in Lawrence Memorial chapel, Wednesday.

In stirring terms Mr. McGillan warned his audience of another great conflict "with a foe more dangerous than the enemy on Flanders' fields." the foe within the country whose favorite method is pacificism which is manifesting itself in such legislation as abolishing the national guard.

GREAT CROWD IN CHAPEL

The exercises in Lawrence chapel were attended by probably the largest crowd ever massed together on a previous Memorial day. The address was preceded by several readings and musical numbers. Mayor Henry Reuter presided and Dr. J. A. Holmes offered prayer. "General Logan's Order No. 11" and "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address" were effectively read by Herman F. Heckert and Joseph Koffend, Jr., respectively. The musical program consisted of a patriotic medley, "United We Stand," by the 121st Artillery band; "The Americans Come," by Carl McKee and a women's chorus; "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," by a male quartet; "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner," by the assembly.

Members of Co. G, Wisconsin National Guard, acted as ushers, and boy scouts conducted veterans of the Civil war to and from their seats.

The audience was in solemn, patriotic mood and hushed as the sacrifices of the fallen soldiers were recalled. The audience applauded but little during the Memorial address, but was roused responsively by the speaker's denunciation of the attempts to abolish the National Guard.

SACRIFICE OF 1865

"We of the service just past," Mr. McGillan began, "are marking time to take up the work of the G. A. R. Of all the lessons of patriotism stretching from Gettysburg to the Argonnes, it is the sacrifice of the soldiers in 1865, that amazes men most.

"I have been in the service myself and seen some of the hideousness of war, but the suffering in 1865, combined with the lack of modern medical and surgical discoveries, the lack of anaesthetics, was such that we can hardly understand how men lived and carried on."

"You veterans of the Civil war are the custodians of patriotism," the speaker went on. "You who have tended the fires; you who have kept the embers burning; you who have been preaching to the younger generation the lesson of patriotism, have reached a place where you are about to lay down your work."

REDEDICATE YOURSELVES

Turning the attention of the audience to the meaning of Memorial day, he continued "For years we have

STATE AND NATIONAL BANK TAX WILL NOT BE CHANGED

By Associated Press

Madison — National and state banks in Wisconsin will be taxed this year the same as previous years due to a recent act of congress and the assured passage of a bill meeting federal requirements, the tax commission says in a bulletin of instructions to assessors issued Wednesday.

"The uncertainty as to the right of the state to tax national banks has been practically removed by the act of Congress of March 4, 1923, authorizing the states to tax national banks either upon their shares of stock or the income therefrom or the dividends distributed to shareholders," the statement said.

TURKS WITHDRAW CLAIM TO ISLAND OFF ASIA MINOR

Lausanne—Turkey has withdrawn her claim to Casterlorizo thus admitting Italian sovereignty over the island which lies off the Asia Minor coast. Announcement of this decision came after a conversation between Kemel Pasha and G. C. Montagna, chief delegates of the two countries at the Near East peace conference.

In addition it is understood to have already authorized the muster out of Headquarters troop, Madison; Bakery company, Mauston; Wagon company, Crandon, and the pack train, Lake Geneva. The Headquarters troop, Janesville and rifle troop, Two Rivers have been mustered out.

FOREST FIRES PUT OUT BY HEAVY RAIN

Conflagrations In North Woods Well Under Control As Result Of Showers

By Associated Press

St. Paul, Minn.—The fire situation in the territory immediately around Itasca state park was materially improved Thursday morning according to early reports reaching the state forestry headquarters here as a result of a heavy thunder shower late Wednesday afternoon.

The extent of the storm has not been ascertained early Thursday by forestry officials who were receiving the reports from the various rangers.

However word from the Itasca park district announced that the fires burning there were well under control and many of them had been extinguished.

Superior—Reports Thursday indicate that all forest fires which raged throughout the northwest during the week past have been checked.

From the iron range country of Minnesota, reports advised that only one fire of consequence still burns. This fire, located about ten miles north of Virginia, Minn., is being fought by a force of 12 men. There is no grave danger of further spread of the fire advices said.

Fires in northern Wisconsin have been succesfully checked. There is little danger, reports Thursday said, unless the fires are again fanned into fury by high winds.

A haze of smoke still hangs over Douglas and Burnette-cos in Wisconsin. This smoke rising from the countless brushfires burning here and there all over both counties is especially discernable at night when it transforms the moon into a ball of dull red.

A rain will put an end to all fires in shortorder say fire wardens who have made a survey of all fires reported.

POLLEY ASSAILANT ESCAPES FROM JAIL

Oshkosh—John Kleveno, recently sentenced in court here to twelve years at the state reformatory at Green Bay for assault with intent to kill H. E. Polley of the employment department of the Paine Lumber company, escaped from the county jail here early Thursday morning but was recaptured about half an hour later, while hiding under a dry kiln at an industrial plant near the jail. He was placed in the jail dungeon for safe keeping. In making his escape he struck Jailer Fred Radkey in the face when the latter unlocked the cell block door to let out several trusties who do work outside the jail. The blow nearly broke Radkey's nose and knocked him down. Kleveno pushed aside four trusties in running through the jail corridor to the exit.

Work On Tallest Building In Appleton Is To Be Started At Once

PLAN COMMUNITY CENTER

Want To Buy Schuetter Property To Erect Larger Building

Plans were announced on Thursday for adding five stories to the Citizens National bank building at the corner of College-ave and Oneida-st, making the building six and one-half stories high, the tallest in Appleton. Application for a permit to build a 90-foot structure on the corner was made to the city engineering department today.

Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the Schuetter property, adjoining the bank building on the north and if this can be secured at a price the bank considers reasonable the building will extend over it. Recently the Carroll Music shop property was purchased by Dr. V. F. Marshall for the bank and eventually this will be replaced by a unit of the new structure. Work on the addition to the present bank building, and on the Schuetter property, if it can be acquired, will be started at once but the Carroll building is held by a lease which will make it impossible to build there for a few years.

101 FEET ON ONEIDA-ST

The present bank building has a frontage of 52½ feet on College-ave and 85 feet on Oneida-st, and the Schuetter building, occupied by the Baker Jewelry store, fronts 16 feet on Oneida-st. The two together would give a frontage of 101 feet on Oneida-st.

The entire building, except the ground floor, which is to be occupied by the bank, and the top floor, will be converted into modern offices. The top floor will be a community center, according to present plans, available on a rental basis for all sorts of meetings and gatherings.

COMMUNITY CENTER

The plans call for a large community meeting room where 300 can be seated for dinner, kitchens, committee rooms, small meeting rooms and other facilities for use of the community. The largest room also will be available for dancing parties. Community centers of similar nature in other cities are being studied so that all their advantages can be included in the plans for the Appleton building.

Bank officers have had the building plans under consideration for a long time but refrained from announcing them until arrangements for the purchase of the Schuetter property could be made. Thus far there has been no agreement on price and if the negotiations are not successful the bank will begin at once to build over the present building. Architects and engineers have given assurance that the bank structure is able to stand an additional five stories. The bank building is about one and one-half stories high.

COST ABOUT $300,000

The upper stories will be constructed of a brick that will harmonize with the stone in the bank. The building will be of fireproof construction throughout.

It is estimated that the cost of the new building, if the Schuetter property is obtained, will be in the neighborhood of $300,000. Coolidge and Hodgden of Chicago, are the architects.

CHI DRY AGENTS GET RUM RUNNERS' GANG

Green Bay Men Customers Of Chicago Counterfeit Booze Organization

By Associated Press

Chicago—Five men were arrested Thursday by federal agents in connection with an alleged counterfeit liquor organization believed to have been supplying Chicagoans with illicit liquor of unknown ingredients.

Isadore Feinstein of Chicago was specifically charged with selling counterfeit revenue stamps to Eddie Kane and Marian Hubbard, both of whom claim to live at Green Bay, Wis.

A large number of the counterfeit strip stamps and two fifty gallon stills which one of the suspects had stored in a warehouse were seized, according to John E. Early, chief field agent of the enforcement forces here.

Daniel Piontozzo, an investigator for the sanitary district of Chicago, and Stechers, an Okley chauffeur were the others arrested.

GERMAN REDS OBJECT TO INDUSTRIALISTS' PLAN

By Associated Press

London—A Central News dispatch from Berlin says that high officials of the German government regard the reparations plan of the industrialists as impossible of acceptance because the conditions attached to it are not to the liking of the social democrats and the parties of the left. These groups particularly object to abolition of the eight hour day.

GRADUATE PUPILS OF FIRST WARD TO PRESENT OPERETTA

Commencement Program Will Take Place At School Building Tonight

An operetta, "The Stolen Flower Queen," will be presented at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the auditorium of the First district school as the feature of the commencement program. The part of fairy queen is taken by Helen Werner, the flower queen by Grace French, king of the weeds by Robert Shepherd and Johnny-Jump-Up by Kenneth Bushey.

In the play the flower queen has been kidnapped by the evil king of the weeds and her misadventures and ultimate rescue by the boy scouts, who are headed by Arthur Smith as leader, make a delightful fantasy of unique delicacy and humor. Flower parts are taken by Louise Marston as the first daisy; Evelyn Kreiss, first sweet pea; Virginia Cordt, first daffodil; Lulu Bush, first violet; Gwendolyn Purves, first tulip.

Other groups are: winds, autumn leaves, Indian rays, snowflakes, butterflies, and crysanthemums. Dances and chorus numbers have a prominent place in the two scenes. The parts of the two heralds will be taken by Jack Brain and Norbert Stammer.

Besides the operetta a "Southern Sweetheart" dance will be given by Dorothy and Virginia Cordt, Jean DeBaufer will give a solo dance. An interpretive group dance will be presented by Miriam Aylesworth, Doris Brinkley, Helen Cohen, Delores Cleveland, Jean DeBaufer and Elsie Kull. The class will sing its class song and the diplomas will be presented to the graduates by Paul V. Cary, of the school board.

Tickets which have been given out in advance are required for admission to the program.

The following students will receive diplomas:

Viola Ashman, Vera Aul, Sarah Bahcall, George Beckley, Helen Briese, Lulu Bush, Kenneth Bushey, Mark Catlin, Abram Cohen, Genevieve Cordt, Virginia Cordt, Ileen Dutcher, Robert Eads, Norman Eggert, Arnold Feavel, Genevieve Floto, Grace French, Alice Getschow, Kathro Graef, Mae Green Dorothy Herzog, Robert Jones, Norman Johnson, Lorena Kabke, Wilbert Kospsel, Gilbert Kreick, Mary Kretchman, Evelyn Kreiss, Herbert Lutz, Louise Marston, Margaret Meyer, Frank Murphy, Charlotte Newby, Evelyn Poppe, Gwendolyn Purves, Harold Riley, Mary Schenck, Helen Schmidt, Bernice Schneider, Beatrice Segal, Eunice Segal, Robert Shephard, Arthur Smith, Gladys Sommers, Norbert Stammer, Mary Treat, James Watson, Helen Werner, and Mary Zussman.

The college is basing its campaign and the workers are basing their argument to prospects chiefly on these four great facts.

Northland is adapted in its education Wisconsin, which is tional method to the need of North Wisconsin, which is a land of stumps, pioneer conditions and of many poor people. The colleges of southern Wisconsin although admirably adapted to their own region are at the best 250 miles or more away and not adapted to the needs of north Wisconsin.

Scores of young men and women are ever year being denied entrance to Northland, the only college in all north Wisconsin, simply because there is no room for them.

The Northland field which is the most rapidly developing agricultural area of the United States at the present time, needs American leadership. 36 per cent of the population of the the region is foreign born. The foreign language is still used to a great extent.

A strong local college adequate to the need would be of inestimable value. Northland is on the ground, is admirably managed, has been doing good work and should be developed to meet the demands made upon it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Stilp and family 732 Lawe-st and Miss Ida Trost spent Wednesday at Holy Hill.

GLANDS MADE ACTIVE BY A NEW DISCOVERY

Chemists Find a Substance Which Renews Vigor by Effort on Nerves and Secretions

A discovery made recently by medical chemists will be hailed with delight by millions. It is a substance which quickly renews youthful vigor by increasing the activity of the nerves and glands on which vital force depends. Its effect is so prompt that a few grains of it produce a visible improvement. Thousands who have tried it tell of delightful results in 24 to 48 hours, many reporting a full restoration of physical powers within a week.

The discovery has what scientists call a "selective" effect, concentrated directly on important nerve centers, glands and blood vessels. Thus the circulation improves, a new sense of warmth is felt and the increased glandular activity soon brings a restoration of youthful power and animation, manifested in sparkling eyes buoyant step and an eagerness and increased capacity for the duties of life. The effects are virtually the same in both old and young. Men past 60 say the discovery has given them the vigor of the prime of life.

In the research department of the Melton laboratories, the substance has been made available for home treatment by combining it, in tablet form, with other invigorating ingredients. The result, known as korex compound, is a double-strength product, containing no harmful drugs, which users pronounce the most powerful and delightful vitalizer known. In fact, its success has been so great that the distributors invite any person needing it to take a double-strength treatment with the understanding that it costs nothing if it fails.

If you wish to try this amazing invigorator, write confidentially to the Melton Laboratories, 389 Massachusetts Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., and the treatment will be mailed to you in a plain, sealed package. You may enclose $2, or simply send your name, without money, and pay $2 and postage on delivery. In either case, if you report "no results" after one week, the laboratories will refund your money. These laboratories are thoroughly reliable, so nobody need hesitate to accept their guaranteed offer. adv.

GRADUATION OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS ENDS THIS WEEK

High School Holds Class Program Today And Commencement Friday

Class day exercises took place at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon on the lawn of Appleton high school. Awards were made for honors in many departments and the usual class prophecy and planting of the ivy took place.

Two grade school commencement programs will be given Thursday evening and the high school commencement program on Friday evening will be the last of the public school graduation exercises. The program of the Washington school will take place in the auditorium of the school at 8 o'clock Thursday evening while the operetta and commencement of the First ward school will take place in that school auditorium at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

The high school program will be given in Lawrence Memorial chapel at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Tickets have been issued to the members of the class and it is expected that the large auditorium will be completely filled. The program is being given entirely by the students with the exception of the presentation speech for the American legion athletic medal which will be made by H. J. Pettigrew, commander of Oney Johnston post. Lee C. Rasey will present the diplomas.

CIGARET STUB IGNITES AWNING AT MEAT MARKET

Dropping of a burning cigaret stub upon the awning of the Hopfensperger Brothers meat market at 1000 Superior-st caused a fire there at 1:45 Wednesday morning which drew out the local fire apparatus. The blaze was extinguished before it had a chance to spread.

BOOST APPLETON AGAIN FOR 1924 U. C. T. MEETING

Delegation Will Press Invitation At State Convention In Madison

Appleton will be in the limelight at the state convention of the United Commercial Travelers of America at Madison Thursday and Friday of this week for two reasons.

The effort begun last year to land the 1924 convention will be renewed this time by the Appleton delegation. Members are quite confident, however, of bringing the next convention to this city.

The Appleton council will be in line for the award of the J. G. Zesiger cup and the M. J. Hemmons flag for the highest percentage of membership gain. Appleton won this award about three years ago. The city that wins the award three times will retain the prize.

This convention of the U. C. T. will be its silver anniversary, and an elaborate program has been prepared for the occasion. On Thursday a reception committee with bands met the delegates and their wives at the trains. The convention was opened by addresses of welcome by Gov. J. J. Blaine and Mayor I. M. Kittleson.

Exemplification of ritual work will take place Thursday evening in the Cameo room of Beaver-bldg. with the Capital City Council in charge. A U. C. T. parade will be the feature on Friday afternoon.

Among the entertainment features are a band concert by the Madison high school band Friday evening, followed by a banquet and ball at the capitol. A buffet luncheon will be served at Bernard park after a boat ride on Lake Mendota. Visiting women will be entertained during the business sessions of the delegates.

APPLETON GROUP WILL TOUR EUROPE

Prof. Fairfield Will Conduct Party On Summer Visit To Continent

Mrs. S. C. Rosebush, her sister Miss Mabel Cass, and Miss Mabel Wolter will be members of the Schilling tour party which Prof. O. P. Fairfield will conduct through the countries of Europe this summer. Mrs. Fairfield and Mrs. Frank Ainsworth also will go to Europe with the party but will not make the entire trip. They plan to go to Italy to remain for the summer. Ray Collins of Fond du Lac, a Lawrence student, will be "baggage smasher" for the party.

This trip will make the fourteenth tour which Prof. Fairfield has conducted in Europe. He has spent every summer there with the exception of the war years since 1905. Others in his party will be from several surrounding states and one from California. The Appleton people will leave about June 20.

PLACE $5,000 ORDER FOR ROAD MACHINERY

A quantity of road machinery costing nearly $5,000 has been ordered by the county highway department. The main apparatus is a drag line, purchased at $3,791 from the Russell Grader Manufacturing company of Minneapolis. It will be used in the county's $30,000 program of gravel work. Other items in the purchase are four Russell wheelers, three highway patrol graders and one Russell junior grader.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS FOR CONSTIPATION

Amazingly Prompt and Dependable

Have a thoroughly cleansing and wholesome effect on the Colon and smaller Intestines, preventing the accumulation of poisonous waste matter in these organs, that if not moved regularly, is re-absorbed into the system, with all the evil effects of auto-intoxication.

For it is here that the actual harm and poisoning of constipation takes place, and it is this evil that Chamberlain's Tablets so successfully overcome. No griping, nausea or unpleasant after effects.

Think of Oil in Terms of 1923

IN considering the oil business as it is today, we must think in terms of 1923 and not in terms of 1913 — which was before such unheard of impetus had been given to the automotive industry.

In 1913 there were but 1,287,000 motor vehicles registered in the United States, while the year ending December 31, 1922, saw a total registration of 12,239,114 — an increase of 900%.

The magnitude of the oil business is so vast that no man can visualize it clearly. It is difficult to picture the needs of 12¼ million automobiles, to say nothing of the vast gallonage needed to supply tractors, stationary gas engines, and the demand for gasoline coming from the arts and industries generally.

The problem of supplying 12¼ million cars is quite different from the problem confronting the industry a decade ago when but 1¼ million cars were in commission.

The adaptation to a changing situation meant the making over of the petroleum industry.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has retained its leadership by expanding its facilities both in the manufacture and distribution rapidly enough to meet the insistent demand for greater service.

During the past ten years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has grown as the need for its products and service has grown. This ever-increasing demand for petroleum products has made it necessary for the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to expand its facilities to an extraordinary degree. Yet, with its multiplied facilities, the Company finds that all its energies are absorbed in meeting the demand for its products from 30 million people in the ten Middle Western States it serves.

While proud of the service it has rendered in the past, the Standard Oil Company today is thinking in terms of 1923 and the years to come.

THE WORLD'S POPULATION

What is the maximum population that the world can support? From Berlin come accounts of a census which claims that 1,804,187,631 people are scattered over the face of the globe, of which only seven per cent is in cities of a population of 100,000 or more. If these figures are correct, and the world's population is eighteen times as great as that of the United States, how much longer before mankind will begin to rub elbows to an uncomfortable degree?

The danger of this, however, a midwest critic points out, is remote. While the world's population has grown by leaps and bounds in the past few score years, new and unpeopled areas have been opened for the overflow. The remaining unpeopled districts even now are far in excess of those where population centers—so much so that mankind could be swallowed up in their vastness. And there is nature to be considered, which through its mysterious but unerring channels points the solution to mankind. Measured by man as good or ill, the mandate of nature in the aggregate seems to mold itself for man's wellbeing. While the laws of nature hold there seems no danger of an overflow of population without a natural solution.

SUNDAY BLUELAWS

Laws applying to strict observance of Sunday were discussed in the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, at the annual convention, and were advocated by Mr. William Jennings Bryan, the Rev. Dr. H. L. Bowlby, of New York city, president of the Lord's Day Alliance, and the Rev. Dr. H. H. McQuilken, of Orange, N. J., chairman of the Presbyterian committee on Sabbath observance. The views which they expressed may be taken as representative of the extreme class of the fundamentalist.

Rev. Dr. McQuilkin alluded to the increasing size of the Sunday newspaper as an insidious attack on religious worship. "They are big enough now," he said, "to bury any man or woman clear out of sight of the Lord from Sunday morning until Sunday night." Dr. McQuilkin explained, too, that Sunday begins on Saturday night when, presumably, everybody should rest in order to be restful on Sunday.

Mr. Bryan stated that "we have no difficulty with this Sabbath question except the man who wants to make money on the Sabbath," and "you can't legislate morality into a man: no, but you can legislate to prevent others from crushing out the opportunity for him to acquire morality."

The churches cannot expect to improve the moral standards of the people by depending on law to do something which they themselves should do. Sunday observance is a matter of conscience, not of law, and there are scarcely a half dozen members of any religious denomination who could possibly agree on the subject. The only reasonable and proper way to promote respect for Sunday is by moral training.

CONQUEST OF WHEAT RUST

Hope for a substantial reduction in the amount of loss which the farmers of the county annually suffer from the black wheat rust is held out by Dr. E. C. Stakman. This promise, however, has only limited application. The barberry campaign is not completed. There are localities where the bush still thrives and still menaces the crops. But in those districts where the eradication has been complete, there should be a distinct gain at the next harvest, other things being equal. The campaign will not have covered the Northwest until the 1924 season, and there remains enough barberry, particularly in North and South Dakota, to cause one of the dread epidemics if weather conditions are, from the point of view of the hungry rust fungus, right.

The moral is plain. The campaign must be on with all possible vigor, which means that not only must the state and federal agents do their part, as they undoubtedly will, but the farmers must cooperate. Scientists have rarely agreed with the same unanimity as do the plant Pathologists on the merits of the strategy which has been adopted against the black rust. The relation between the barberry bush and the black stem rust has been positively established, and, if science did not have all the proofs it needs in the laboratory, the experience of the European sections where eradication of the bush has been followed by complete elimination of the disease, would be positive proof that the state and federal governments are on the right track.

It cannot be promised that when the last bush is uprooted in this territory, the black stem rust will be no more, for the southern winds certainly do carry disease north from the fields where the life cycle of the destructive fungus is not dependent upon the same barberry phase as here; but the danger of serious loss will have been dissipated.

STANDARDIZATION OF GROCERIES

The National Wholesale Grocers' association voted, at its annual convention in St. Louis, to appoint a committee on simplification to cooperate with the United States department of commerce. The object of this committee's work will be to eliminate many lines of groceries and practically standardize shelf goods.

Reduction of the number of varieties of goods is in progress in all lines of trade and manufacture. The movement began fifteen or twenty years ago and it has been widening in the last two years. Certain manufacturers were able easily to limit the number of their products to those having constant demand. Others had to turn out many goods having but little and irregular demand.

The growers' committee will ascertain which articles the public does not care for, or which sizes of packages might be dispensed with, or which goods are carried on the shelves too long. It will then standardize goods and containers so that a limited number will be used.

Competition will not be eliminated. If the public wants certain goods or packages the grocers will have to carry them. Trading can be successful and profitable only if it meets the demand. It is not good business to stock up with goods that do not sell readily.

THE PROLETARIAT WANTS PROSPERITY

One of the wisest judgments of human nature ever uttered or written is that famous and undying declaration that every individual is entitled to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." The soviet's inability to take human nature into reckoning in its political schemes is the cause of the failure of the communist system of government.

Flashing a red decoration and garbed in the uniform of a member of the Red army, Foreign Minister Tchnitcherin dramatically told a large Moscow audience that the soviet defied Great Britain. Trotsky, as spectacular militarist always, asserted that the soviet desired peace, but is prepared for war.

Neither of these soviet ministers expressed the sentiment of the people of Russia. The people of Russia are not ready for war, but yearn earnestly for calm and prosperity. Farmers pray for the chance to work as free men, and raise and market crops.

It may be and probably is a fact that the soviet would like to put on a patriotic demonstration in order to deceive the public into taking an interest in communism. But herein Lenine, Trotsky, Tchitcherin and their companions mistake human nature.

The truth about the soviet government and leaders is that they are incapable of being human in point of view or in method. To begin with, communism is inhuman; and, when a system is barbaric, there is no possibility of inducing the proletariat to like it.

Under the soviet regime citizens are entitled neither to life, nor to liberty, nor to the pursuit of happiness. This explains why communism, being opposed to human nature, cannot be popular.

A LICK OR A SPLASH

Dr. X, as I must call him, is a bacteriologist of the highest standing. He takes issue with something I have recently said here about the effects of exposure on disease germs. I was discussing the common drinking glass and endeavoring to whitewash the old tin dipper that hangs by the spring and at the same time to give patrons of the soda fountain a scare about the glasses and spoons. I said that a pull from the common drinking cup when one is thirsty and there is nothing else to drink from is comparatively safe because even indirect sunlight is inimical to germs and direct sunlight destroys them in a few moments. At some fountains a mere rinsing with cool or lukewarm water is about the extent of the cleaning of the utensils. Washing with hot water and soap or even hot water alone would prevent the danger of infection from the use of soda fountain ware.

Dr. X reminds me that some disease germs will survive hours or days of exposure to diffuse daylight; that being true it would seem that I erred in whitewashing the common drinking cup: Scientifically, technically, I probably overdrew the protective influence of sunlight. Practically, I still think one takes little or no chance of infection when drinking from the old dipper by the well.

From some observations made in army camps in the course of the influenza pandemic sanitatarians have attributed to the custom of hand shaking an important role in the spread of respiratory infections. When we consider how frequently the hand unconsciously goes to the mouth, how many times an hour a finger is moistened with saliva either intentionally or thoughtlessly, it is not unreasonable to believe that one may pick up various infections by shaking hands. And if one is to practice anythink like personal asepsis as a means of keeping well, it is just as important to wash the hands with soap and water after a hand shaking round as it is to wash the hands with soap and water before eating or immediately upon reaching home from a visit to a theater or other place where the hands may have become contaminated by contact with surfaces contaminated by other hands. I am certainly not cranky about germs, yet I consider it a healthful thing to study one's habit and to strive to acquire a technic of personal asepsis—for instance, learning to avoid bringing hand to mouth unconsciously after possible contamination and before it is convenient to wash the hands.

It is with some reluctance that I go into this subject here, for I am not sure that the ordinary layman does not ascribe too much importance to hand to hand and hand to mouth infection. My own notion is that the mode of infection responsible for 95 per cent of infectious sickness is droplet or mouth and nose spray infection; that mode of infection is altogether too popular.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Health In DesPlaines

Our teacher asked what causes typhoid fever, and when I answered that it is from bad water conditions he said I was wrong, that typhoid fever is caused by uncleanliness in the kitchen. Is that true? Another thing he talks about is antitoxin—he says it may cure diphtheria but it oftener kills the person. He says it explodes the red corpuscles. —Is this so?—A. K. M.

Answer—No. All the filth imaginable in the kitchen will not cause typhoid fever. Typhoid fever occurs only when typhoid bacilli get into the food or water; that may happen if a typhoid carrier is employed in the kitchen, even though perfect cleanliness prevails there. The teaching that antitoxin kills is wrong, and the suggestion that it "explodes the corpuscles" is not true.

No Publicity

If I should send you a letter giving details of a very private nature and asking for some information, would you publish it or my name in the paper? —I. V. W.

Answer—I have enough trouble to unhinge my mind, but in the years I have been carrying on this way no correspondent's name has been divulged.

Strength Of Premier Lies In His Force

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

Rome—Interviewing the man who hypnotized forty million people would seem a difficult job. It wasn't Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy is the easiest man to interview—once you get to him—in Europe.

It is easy because he answers questions. Most Latins—most Europeans—beat the devil about the bush. Mussolini comes right back at you.

"Eh bien!" he exclaimed, drilling me with his enormous hypnotic eyes as we sat facing each other across his desk in Chigi Palace—the Italian foreign office. His tone said as plainly as had he used the word:

"Shoot!"

"The world is full of trouble." I said as an opener. "What is Italy's?"

"Done!" Mussolini exploded, the word which indicated he was about to unlimber coming across the desk at me like a cannon ball. "Six months ago Italy's chief trouble was that she needed order. Now she has it."

His words came in jerks, about six at a time, like bursts from a machine gun.

FINANCES PROBLEM

"Today," he went on in perfect French, each word bell-clear despite the fact he is the son of a blacksmith, a "self-made" man, and has taught himself pretty much all he knows, "Today Italy's greatest need is to get her finances in order—to balance her budget. Three years ago there was a deficit of 20,000,000,000 lira. We have cut it to 3,000,000,000. We must cut it to zero. Voila!"

"When will you reach that 'zero?'" I asked.

"That does not depend entirely on Italy. If Europe quits making trouble, soon. If not, I can not say."

"What's the matter with Europe?"

"Mainly two things," Mussolini shot back much like a tennis player volleys back his opponent's ball. "Russia is one. Germany is the other. Russia is just a big hole—a void—in the world. Nothing there but literature — phrases. Germany is a block in the road.

"These two countries may be considered as one obstacle, for they are working together—one supports the other. Europe's economic ill can not be corrected until the void is filled and the block removed from the road. That means reparations must be settled. Germany must pay."

CONFERENCES? NO!

"How is this to be brought about—by conference?"

"No. Conferences don't settle anything. All they do at one conference is to agree to have another. The patient is very sick. The doctors confer, but the patient gets no better.

"No. The interested nations must agree one with the other—first two, then three, then four and so on, until a general agreement is reached."

"What about the opposition to the Fascisti party which has just resulted in four resignations of cabinet members being handed in to you?"

"What opposition?" snapped the premier as if he did not understand.

"You mean in the Popular party? Over with, inished."

"Have you no fear of a reaction setting in—a return to the old days and parties as they were before your march on Rome?"

"OLD PARTIES DEAD"

"Not the slightest. All the old parties are dead, their ashes scattered. The rest have been absorbed by us. Tomorrow you will see. The streets of Rome will show you why I do not fear a reaction. The people are with me and then there are 160,000 'Black Shirts'—Fascisti soldiers. These are mine. They belong to me."

For a few minutes we talked of people — European personalities. Lenin was a menace. Kemal Pasha quite a figure. Chancellor Cuno "was to be reckoned with. He's a business man." Lloyd George "writes too much."

Then I put the question—the one question—I most wanted to ask. This new Italian leader, virtually dictator, who holds Italy in the hollow of his hand, seems to wield some sort of supernatural influence over the 40,000,000 people of his country. His great, black, wide-open and staring Svengali-like eyes gave him the air of a hypnotist.

FORCE, FAITH—EYES

"You seem to have some strange hold on the people of Italy," I said. "To what do you attribute your power?" I asked the question deliberately. I wanted to see how he would take it.

Mussolini smiled. He had risen and come around to my side of the desk. Now he took a step forward until we stood face to face, very close, his piercing eyes stabbing directly into mine.

"That is one of the mysteries," he said enigmatically.

"Personal magnetism," suggested his chef de cabinet, smiling also.

"People," said Mussolini "really love force. They love to be commanded. They love a leader. They love courage and they love unselfishness. When there is work to be done and a man of courage does it and without personal gain to himself, people will follow him anywhere."

"Then," I replied, "there isn't such a mystery after all."

"But first," he concluded, ignoring my remark, "you must be as hard on yourself as you are on others. To have discipline you must first discipline yourself. I am very hard on myself."

One thing is certain. Part of Mussolini's power comes from his absolute faith in his own star. He is the most self-confident man I have ever seen. In his lexicon there is no such word as fail.

Only time can tell whether Europe has another Napoleon or just a most interesting meteor trailing across the sky.

Q. Did the watermelon originate in this country? H. E.

A. The watermelon is a native of tropical and southern Africa, whence it has been introduced by man into all tropical, subtropical and many temperate climates.

Q. Is there a cribbage hand that will be improved by whatever card is turned as a starter? G. A. C.

A. With a hand consisting of the deuce, two treys and a four, any card that may be turned from the ace to the five, inclusive, will make new runs while any card turned from the six to the ten inclusive will make fifteens.

Q. Does an open fireplace lower the temperature of a room if not in use? A. F. P.

A. When unused it does lower the temperature to some degree.

Q. Do Eskimos have a common language? T. W. Z.

A. Eskimos are scattered through Greenland, Canada, Alaska, and Siberia to the number of about 32,000 all of whom speak the same stock language, using the same stem words and affixes. The chief characteristic of the language is that single words of complex structure are used to express ideas that in English would be conveyed by a whole sentence.

WOMEN FROM FORTY TO FIFTY

Will Be Interested in Mrs. Hooker's Recovery by Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Paul, Minn.—"I was going through the Change of Life and suffered from a run-down condition and the troubles a woman has to go through at that time, hot flashes, nervousness and headaches. At times I was not able to do my work, but since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am gaining every day and can do my work with more ease than I have for five or six years. I owe it all to your great medicine."—MARTHA HOOKER, 114 College Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

When women who are between the ages of forty-five and fifty-five are beset with such annoying symptoms as nervousness, irritability, melancholia and heat flashes, which produce headaches, dizziness, or a sense of suffocation, they should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is especially adapted to help women through this crisis. It is prepared from roots and herbs and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, for a free copy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book for Women.

KAUKAUNA HONORS MEMORY OF ITS DEPARTED HEROES

American Legion Plan For Observance Of Day Is Carried Out

Kaukauna—Memorial day plans of Kaukauna post of the American legion were carried out according to schedule Wednesday. The line of cars, however, in the procession to the cemeteries was not very long. Starting from the meeting hall of the Woman's Relief Corps, the legion, Gold Star mothers, Womans Relief Corps and the Grand Army of the Republic went from Union cemetery to St. Mary cemetery on the south side, decorated the graves of soldiers, stopped on the bridge for services for the unknown dead and then proceeded to the north side cemeteries.

William F. Ashe gave the address of the day at the soldier's monument on Lawe-st. Singing was furnished by a group of high school students under the direction of Miss Florence Kohn, supervisor of music in the public schools. Prayers were offered by the Rew. W. P. Hulen.

H. A. VAN ABLE, ILL A WEEK, IS DEAD

Kaukauna — Henry H. VanAble, 49, died at 1:45 Tuesday afternoon at his home, 120 E. Third-st after an illness of a week. He is survived by his widow, seven children, Florence, Martha, Eugene, Clifford, Mabel, Cyril and Herbert, his mother, Mrs. Ellen VanAble, Hollandtown, and the following brothers and sisters: John VanAble, Winner, S. D.; William and Bert VanAble, Hollandtown; Mike VanAble, Kimberly; Mrs. Andrew VanDeuren, Green Bay; Mrs. Mary Broeren, Thorpe; Mrs. Anna Vande Hey, Hollandtown.

Mr. VanAble was a member of Kaukauna branch, No. 64, Catholic Knights of Wisconsin, the Loyal Order of Moose, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks and Fraternal Order of Eagles. He had been making plans to celebrate the silver anniversary of his marriage in the fall. He had been in business in this city for the last 17 years. Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning from St. Mary church with burial in St. Francis cemetery, Hollandtown.

WILL HELP TO SHAPE U. S. INDIAN POLICY

Oneida — Dennison Wheelock, a prominent Oneida Indian attorney who now resides in De Pere and has his office at Green Bay had a signal honor conferred upon him by Hubert Work, secretary of the interior, Washington, D. C., when inviting him to join with 100 other prominent men and women of national vision, including publicists, educators, governors and churchmen for the planning of the best possible policy for the Indian bureau to pursue in its relation to the Indian. Mr. Work said in part, "Because of your interest and recognized position among thoughtful people, your sympathetic cooperation in this responsibility will be very much appreciated."

There are 340,917 Indians in the United States, 200 Indian reservations and 193 Indian tribes; there are 50,000 Catholics with 200 missionaries and 48,000 protestants with 400 missionaries. Twelve thousand Indians served in the World war and $25,000,000 has been invested in Liberty bonds by Indians.

J. W. Cornelius moved a large house a short distance for Mike Coffey, Freedom. He will build a new home in its place and the old one will be sold.

Ethel Cornelius, who had been attending high school in West De Pere is home on a vacation.

Vera Archiquette and Basil Milhiser attended the high school in Seymour.

Grace and Kate Geurden of Little Chute spent Sunday with their sister Anna.

Oneida base ball team played its first game here Sunday and beat Kaukauna 16 to 2.

At the laying of the corner stone Thursday the altar society will serve dinner at the new Immaculate Conception church.

The little son of Zack Schenadore returned from a Green Bay hospital.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MRS. JOHN HERMAN

Special to Post-Crescent

Black Creek—Funeral services were held here Thursday at St. John church for Mrs. John Herman, who died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gustave Peters, town of Black Creek.

Mrs. Herman was taken sick at her home in the village several months ago and was moved to the home of her daughter about three weeks ago. She was born in Germany and came to this country with her parents when six years old. She was married to Mr. Herman in town of Center Sept. 18, 1874. The couple lived in that town for eight years and then moved to town of Black Creek. In 1903 the couple moved to the village.

Mrs. Herman is survived by her widower; four children, Mrs. Peters; John, Jr., Henry, and Mrs. Ferdinand Radtke, Appleton; 21 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren; three brothers; two sisters.

She Refused Him

"I was engaged to the prettiest little doll in Indiana, but my stomach and liver trouble had made me so grouchy that she broke it off. I tried all kinds of medicine and doctors and got no relief. The gas blew me up like a porcupine and I had awful colic attacks. Finally I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has certainly fixed me up fine. I am now as good as ever." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists. adv.

EQUITY SHIPPERS TO DOUBLE NUMBER OF STOCKHOLDERS

Meeting For This Purpose Will Be Held At Oshkosh On June 8

Special To Post-Crescent

Greenville—Equity Cooperative Livestock Sales association will hold a special meeting in the city hall at Oshkosh at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of June 8, according to notice received from H. W. Glocke, secretary. Articles of incorporation will be amended so as to change the par value of the shares of stock from $100 each to $50 each. The association is incorporated for $10,000 with 100 shares and the new plan will make possible the sale of 200 shares at $50 each. Every Equity shipping association that is a member will be entitled to one representative at the meeting.

George Schmidt was elected by Common Sense local at its meeting Friday night to represent that organization at the Oshkosh conference. Orders were taken at the session for both soft and hard coal, mill feeds and oil meal.

Bans of matrimony were announced at St. Mary church Sunday for Miss Asella Kreutzberg of Ellington and George Crest of Whitelaw. Miss Kreutzberg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreutzberg.

Miss Gertrude Kaspar, daughter of the Rev. Leonard Kaspar, has returned home from Oakwood, near Milwaukee, where she taught school.

Miss Carrie Relien was tendered a shower Saturday night by about 100 friends at her home. She will be married sometime in June to Walter Luick. The evening was spent in playing games. Miss Relien is the daughter of Henry Relien, supervisor of the township.

HINT AT FRAUD IN VETERANS' BUREAU

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C.—Some of the evidence gathered in the senate committee investigation of the veterans bureau has been turned over to the department of justice for possible action against the individuals involved.

The charges so far laid before the attorney-general relate to alleged frauds in connection with dental work in veterans' hospitals but it was indicated Tuesday that the justice department might be asked within a few days to take action also against certain persons connected with the purchase of hospital sites and other property by the bureau.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAUGHT AFTER 6 YEARS OF LIBERTY

Chicago—Albert A. Kindy, an escaped convict from Michigan state penitentiary who has been sought for six years in connection with the slaying of a Detroit police detective is under arrest here after he attempted to cash a bogus check at a local bank. The police are seeking to connect him with a number of recent forgeries and jewel robberies in Chicago, Milwaukee, and Minneapolis.

Kindy, who police say is known as the "wire tapping forger," is said to have shot detective Schmidt, of the Detroit police department while the latter was pursuing him in a spectacular chase across Detroit skyscrapers in 1917. The detective, it was said, had interrupted Kindy in one of his alleged wire tapping deals.

CHERRY BLOSSOM LAND READY FOR SHOW SUNDAY

Appleton motorists who have long expressed the desire to visit Sturgeon Bay during the time that the cherry trees are blossoming or bearing, can have a part of their wish fulfilled this coming Sunday, which according to the Sturgeon Bay Chamber of Commerce has been proclaimed "cherry blossom day." Each year thousands of automobile owners in the state visit this region to see the beautiful array of cheery trees in bloom, and it is expected, weather permitting, that the number will be increased this year.

Congregational Denomination Enjoys Biggest Increase On Record

By Associated Press

Boston—Advance figures from Congregational official records indicate that the 1922 membership growth was 19,575, which is the largest growth ever made by the denomination. Seven states, in order named, are Congregationalist strongholds: Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Illinois, Ohio, Iowa and Michigan.

In common with most other bodies, Congregational gifts to benevolences have grown rapidly since the war ended. For example, the 1922 gifts are $1,258,000 larger than the 1919, in a total of $2,955,000. That is, benevolence nearly doubled in the five years since Armistice day. The greatest percentage gain was made in Florida.

Congregationalists used to hold national councils triennially, but now hold them every other year. The next one is to be held at Springfield, Mass., in October, and President Harding has been asked to be a speaker. The president has given a conditional acceptance—will come if he can. As a center of a large part of Congregational membership announcement is made this early that efforts will be made to bring to Springfield the working forces of the denomination. Proceedings of the meetings are to be broadcasted.

WATER OFFICIALS RETURN TO CITY

Fred R. Morris, assistant secretary of Appleton water commission, and A. J. Hall, superintendent of the waterworks plant, have returned from the national convention at Detroit of the American Waterworks association. The gathering was probably the largest in the history of the 40 years of the organization. More than 1,000 delegates were present from all parts of the country.

The convention which lasted nearly all week, was divided into several sections, and departmental meetings were held on various matters pertaining to management of water departments. A cafeteria luncheon was served at Detroit's large filter plant now nearing completion. Delegates were conducted through the Ford plant and other automobile factories.

Smith in Europe

Leonard S. Smith, Appleton's city planner, who is traveling in Europe, has written to Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, describing his trip. Mr. Smith was planning to attend the fourth international congress on road making in Madrid, Spain.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH FRECKLES

Make this Lemon Cream and just see Tan, Freckles Disappear

Mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful freckle and tan cream, and complexion beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon cream into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes naturally bleach, right out and how youthfully clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes.

KAUKAUNA HONORS MEMORY OF ITS DEPARTED HEROES

American Legion Plan For Observance Of Day Is Carried Out

Kaukauna—Memorial day plans of Kaukauna post of the American legion were carried out according to schedule Wednesday. The line of cars, however, in the procession to the cemeteries was not very long. Starting from the meeting hall of the Woman's Relief Corps, the legion, Gold Star mothers, Womans Relief Corps and the Grand Army of the Republic went from Union cemetery to St. Mary cemetery on the south side, decorated the graves of soldiers, stopped on the bridge for services for the unknown dead and then proceeded to the north side cemeteries.

William F. Ashe gave the address of the day at the soldier's monument on Lawe-st. Singing was furnished by a group of high school students under the direction of Miss Florence Kohn, supervisor of music in the public schools. Prayers were offered by the Rew. W. P. Hulen.

H. A. VAN ABLE, ILL A WEEK, IS DEAD

Kaukauna — Henry H. VanAble, 49, died at 1:45 Tuesday afternoon at his home, 120 E. Third-st after an illness of a week. He is survived by his widow, seven children, Florence, Martha, Eugene, Clifford, Mabel, Cyril and Herbert, his mother, Mrs. Ellen VanAble, Hollandtown, and the following brothers and sisters: John VanAble, Winner, S. D.; William and Bert VanAble, Hollandtown; Mike VanAble, Kimberly; Mrs. Andrew VanDeuren, Green Bay; Mrs. Mary Broeren, Thorpe; Mrs. Anna Vande Hey, Hollandtown.

Mr. VanAble was a member of Kaukauna branch, No. 64, Catholic Knights of Wisconsin, the Loyal Order of Moose, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks and Fraternal Order of Eagles. He had been making plans to celebrate the silver anniversary of his marriage in the fall. He had been in business in this city for the last 17 years. Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning from St. Mary church with burial in St. Francis cemetery, Hollandtown.

WILL HELP TO SHAPE U. S. INDIAN POLICY

Oneida — Dennison Wheelock, a prominent Oneida Indian attorney who now resides in De Pere and has his office at Green Bay had a signal honor conferred upon him by Hubert Work, secretary of the interior, Washington, D. C., when inviting him to join with 100 other prominent men and women of national vision, including publicists, educators, governors and churchmen for the planning of the best possible policy for the Indian bureau to pursue in its relation to the Indian. Mr. Work said in part, "Because of your interest and recognized position among thoughtful people, your sympathetic cooperation in this responsibility will be very much appreciated."

There are 340,917 Indians in the United States, 200 Indian reservations and 193 Indian tribes; there are 59,000 Catholics with 200 missionaries and 48,000 protestants with 400 missionaries. Twelve thousand Indians served in the World war and $25,000,000 has been invested in Liberty bonds by Indians.

J. W. Cornelius moved a large house a short distance for Mike Coffey, Freedom. He will build a new home in its place and the old one will be sold.

Ethel Cornelius, who had been attending high school in West De Pere is home on a vacation.

Vera Archiquette and Basil Millhiser attended the high school in Seymour.

Grace and Kate Geurden of Little Chute spent Sunday with their sister Anna.

Oneida base ball team played its first game here Sunday and beat Kaukauna 16 to 2.

At the laying of the corner stone Thursday the altar society will serve dinner at the new Immaculate Conception church.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MRS. JOHN HERMAN

Special to Post-Crescent

Black Creek—Funeral services were held here Thursday at St. John church for Mrs. John Herman, who died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gustave Peters, town of Black Creek.

Mrs. Herman was taken sick at her home in the village several months ago and was moved to the home of her daughter about three weeks ago. She was born in Germany and came to this country with her parents when six years old. She was married to Mr. Herman in town of Center Sept. 18, 1874. The couple lived in that town for eight years and then moved to town of Black Creek. In 1903 the couple moved to the village.

Mrs. Herman is survived by her widower; four children, Mrs. Peters; John, Jr., Henry, and Mrs. Ferdinand Radtke, Appleton; 21 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren; three brothers; two sisters.

She Refused Him

"I was engaged to the prettiest little doll in Indiana, but my stomach and liver trouble had made me so grouchy that she broke it off. I tried all kinds of medicine and doctors and got no relief. The gas blew me up like a porcupine and I had awful colic attacks. Finally I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has certainly fixed me up fine. I am now as good as ever." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists. adv.

EQUITY SHIPPERS TO DOUBLE NUMBER OF STOCKHOLDERS

Meeting For This Purpose Will Be Held At Oshkosh On June 8

Special To Post-Crescent

Greenville—Equity Cooperative Livestock Sales association will hold a special meeting in the city hall at Oshkosh at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of June 8, according to notice received from H. W. Glocke, secretary. Articles of incorporation will be amended so as to change the par value of the shares of stock from $100 each to $50 each. The association is incorporated for $10,000 with 100 shares and the new plan will make possible the sale of 200 shares at $50 each. Every Equity shipping association that is a member will be entitled to one representative at the meeting.

George Schmidt was elected by Common Sense local at its meeting Friday night to represent that organization at the Oshkosh conference. Orders were taken at the session for both soft and hard coal, mill feeds and oil meal.

Bans of matrimony were announced at St. Mary church Sunday for Miss Asella Kreutzberg of Ellington and George Crest of Whitelaw. Miss Kreutzberg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreutzberg.

Miss Gertrude Kaspar, daughter of the Rev. Leonard Kaspar, has returned home from Oakwood, near Milwaukee, where she taught school.

Miss Carrie Relien was tendered a shower Saturday night by about 100 friends at her home. She will be married sometime in June to Walter Laick. The evening was spent in playing games. Miss Relien is the daughter of Henry Relien, supervisor of the township.

HINT AT FRAUD IN VETERANS' BUREAU

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C.—Some of the evidence gathered in the senate committee investigation of the veterans bureau has been turned over to the department of justice for possible action against the individuals involved.

The charges so far laid before the attorney-general relate to alleged frauds in connection with dental work in veterans' hospitals but it was indicated Tuesday that the justice department might be asked within a few days to take action also against certain persons connected with the purchase of hospital sites and other property by the bureau.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAUGHT AFTER 6 YEARS OF LIBERTY

Chicago—Albert A. Kindy, an escaped convict from Michigan state penitentiary who has been sought for six years in connection with the slaying of a Detroit police detective is under arrest here after he attempted to cash a bogus check at a local bank. The police are seeking to connect him with a number of recent forgeries and jewel robberies in Chicago, Milwaukee, and Minneapolis.

Kindy, who police say is known as the "wire tapping forger," is said to have shot detective Schmidt, of the Detroit police department while the latter was pursuing him in a spectacular chase across Detroit skyscrapers in 1917. The detective, it was said, had interrupted Kindy in one of his alleged wire tapping deals.

CHERRY BLOSSOM LAND READY FOR SHOW SUNDAY

Appleton motorists who have long expressed the desire to visit Sturgeon Bay during the time that the cherry trees are blossoming or bearing, can have a part of their wish fulfilled this coming Sunday, which according to the Sturgeon Bay Chamber of Commerce has been proclaimed "cherry blossom day." Each year thousands of automobile owners in the state visit this region to see the beautiful array of cheery trees in bloom, and it is expected, weather permitting, that the number will be increased this year.

19,575 MEMBERS ADDED TO CHURCH DURING LAST YEAR

Congregational Denomination Enjoys Biggest Increase On Record

By Associated Press

Boston—Advance figures from Congregational official records indicate that the 1923 membership growth was 19,575, which is the largest growth ever made by the denomination. Seven states, in order named, are Congregationalist strongholds: Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Illinois, Ohio, Iowa and Michigan.

In common with most other bodies, Congregational gifts to benevolences have grown rapidly since the war ended. For example, the 1922 gifts are $1,258,000 larger than the 1919, in a total of $2,955,000. That is, benevolence nearly doubled in the five years since Armistice day. The greatest percentage gain was made in Florida.

Congregationalists used to hold national councils triennially, but now hold them every other year. The next one is to be held at Springfield, Mass., in October, and President Harding has been asked to be a speaker. The president has given a conditional acceptance—will come if he can. As a center of a large part of Congregational membership announcement is made this early that efforts will be made to bring to Springfield the working forces of the denomination. Proceedings of the meetings are to be broadcasted.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Rashes, Blackheads, in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins.

WATER OFFICIALS RETURN TO CITY

Fred R. Morris, assistant secretary of Appleton water commission, and A. J. Hall, superintendent of the waterworks plant, have returned from the national convention at Detroit of the American Waterworks association. The gathering was probably the largest in the history of the 40 years of the organization. More than 1,000 delegates were present from all parts of the country.

The convention which lasted nearly all week, was divided into several sections, and departmental meetings were held on various matters pertaining to management of water departments. A cafeteria luncheon was served at Detroit's large filter plant, now nearing completion. Delegates were conducted through the Ford plant and other automobile factories.

Smith in Europe

Leonard S. Smith, Appleton's city planner, who is traveling in Europe, has written to Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, describing his trip. Mr. Smith was planning to attend the fourth international congress on road making in Madrid, Spain.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH FRECKLES

Make this Lemon Cream and just see Tan, Freckles Disappear

Mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful freckle and tan cream, and complexion beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon cream into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes naturally bleach, right out and how youthfully clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes.

GROWTH OF SCHOOL IDEA IS DEPICTED AT COMMENCEMENT

Thirty-two Third Ward Grad- Thirty-six Third Ward Grad- Tuesday Night

A commencement program which demonstrated how different are the present day schools from the old school by being different itself was given at the Third ward school on Tuesday evening. The small auditorium was filled to capacity before at school functions, but on Tuesday evening more than 500 parents and friends of the children were packed in to see the program put on by the 36 graduates

The program proved to be an interesting demonstration of the abilities of these students who are graduating from eighth grade The musical features of the evening was given by school and class organizations under the direction of Miss Eleanora Schneider Each number showed the splendid musical training and ability of the students.

ALL TAKE PART

Miss Grace Haberman gave the address of welcome and followed it with a poem by Morgan entitled "The Training Table" The rest of the program was given in four scenes which depicted typical events in the lives of present day school children. The first scene was presented by 15 boys who were on a quest for ideas for making a commencement program in which 36 boys and girls could take part and not weary their audience The second scene was a class meeting over which Miss Martha Jentz presided as chairman This was a demonstration of a model class meeting conducted by parliamentary rule Miss Marjorie McCarey outlined a program for commencement day making the points that the program should have a purpose and on the eve of Memorial day should not fail to recognize the service of those who saved the nation She said that it should also tell of the growth of the American school

Miss McCarey's plan was accepted and the class voted that it should have a dress rehearsal on May 29. In the rehearsal Alexander Manier gave Lincoln's Gettysburg address and Harold Woehler gave the address which Wilson made 50 years later These were followed by a group of poems by current writers on American ideals Addresses on these ideals were given by Marjorie Sorenson, Lillian Gabriel Luella. Giese Beatrice Miller Rita McKenney, Marjorie McCarey Other recitations were given by Dorothy Ovitt, Gilbert Strohofer, Bert Fish, Hilda Brandt Mary Ricker, Dorothy Bell, and Lillian Gabriel.

GROWTH OF IDEA

At the end of the rehearsal Rachel Riesenweber presented the results of new methods in reading Theresa Wankey gave a demonstration of banking in connection with studies in thrift and Ethel Stallman gave a survey of the American school. She brought out the facts that the school is wholly a growth of the last 50 years She showed that when the Civil war ended there were in 35 states, 7,000,000 children in school, which was only 59 per cent of the children of school age Each child attended school 78 days a year which was an average of only 44 days a year for all the school age children. Now there are 30,000,000 of school age children and 25,000,000 are in school The school population is equal to eight states the size of Wisconsin The people now pay according to locality and interest from $27 to $272 per pupil per year for schools

The program brought out that the main note of the gospel of the school is work and the training of the largest army in the country to fight off ignorance, idleness, anarchy and all that is opposed to the founders of the nation. The final scene was graduation. Miss Lois Kloehn read Kipling's "Can You Do It?" and Miss Martha Jentz gave the valedictory.

KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM

In the afternoon the kindergarten gave an outdoor program for parents and friends A series of charming little plays songs, games and dances were given by the children who were for the afternoon of the family of Ben Greet

Those who were given diplomas include Alfred Baker William Bauer Dorothy Bell, Hilda Brandt Clarence Buss, Alvin Casperson Beth Fish, Lillian Gabriel Luella Giese, Grace Haberman, Erwin Herzfeldt, Martha Jentz, Lois Kloehn Marjorie McCarey, Rita McKenney, Alexander Manier, Ethel Merkl Norman Michels, Beatrice Miller Vernon Neuman, Dorothy Ovitt Verna Parson, Harold Peterson, Lena Place, Raymond Prash er, Mary Ricker, Rachael Riesenweber, Glen Smith, Marjorie Sorensen, Ethel Stallman, George Stewart, Marion Stewart, Gilbert Strohofer, Raymond Verstegen, Theresa Wankey, Ora Winter, Harold Woehler, Eldie Wolfgram and Morris Yentz

The standard tests have been given in the school and show the class which is going out to have a median reading efficiency of a tenth grade. A large number of the teachers of the school will attend summer sessions in this state and in Illinois while one or two will be in California institutions for the summer session The teachers will leave this week for their homes.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep children's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali This dries the scalp makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing as this cannot possibly injure the hair

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt dandruff and excess oil The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last for months Be sure and ask for "Mulsified" adv.

LITTLE CHUTE HAS EVENING PARADE

In order to make it possible for the citizens generally to attend, the village of Little Chute held its Memorial exercises at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Most of the men are employed during the day.

Headed by the band, the procession formed at the village hall with all the former service men, village officials and civic societies and citizens in line and marched to the cemetery.

The exercises at the cemetery were in charge of the Rev. J. S. Sprangers of St. John church.

The Perfect Refrigerator

The manner in which cold, dry air constantly circulates in an Automatic prevents moisture and mildew. Foods will not spoil or become tainted, but always be cold, sweet and wholesome.

The Automatic circulation keeps air constantly passing over the ice, thus purifying it. Food odors will not mix. Your milk will not taste of onions; your butter will not taste of melon or fish.

You get more refrigeration for less ice in an Automatic because there are eight honestly-built, heat-resisting, cold-retaining walls.

Because these eight walls keep the heat out, and the cold in, you use much less ice than in other refrigerators.

You can pay more, but you can't buy more.

You are welcome to see the Automatic demonstrated at our store. You'll be much interested in this modern system of circulation and refrigeration.

No matter how stoutly people maintain that they resent having anything "put over on them," they really only resent it when the "putting over" is so blunt that it can't possibly pass for anything else.

This holds good of so-called "sales." The secret of "sales" is merely this: A merchant marks up his prices enough to permit an apparent slashing during the "sale," these "sale" prices being the prices that should have prevailed right along. So the public pays inflated prices eleven months in the year to get "sale" prices one month.

Our policy is to have absolutely rock-bottom prices every day in the year. Every day is a real "sale" day in our 371 Stores.

GROWTH OF SCHOOL IDEA IS DEPICTED AT COMMENCEMENT

Thirty-two Third Ward Grad- Thirty-six Third Ward Grad- Tuesday Night

A commencement program which demonstrated how different are the present day schools from the old school by being different itself was given at the Third ward school on Tuesday evening. The small auditorium was filled to capacity before at school functions, but on Tuesday evening more than 500 parents and friends of the children were packed in to see the program put on by the 36 graduates.

The program proved to be an interesting demonstration of the abilities of these students who are graduating from eighth grade. The musical features of the evening was given by school and class organizations under the direction of Miss Eleanora Schneider. Each number showed the splendid musical training and ability of the students.

ALL TAKE PART

Miss Grace Haberman gave the address of welcome and followed it with a poem by Morgan entitled "The Training Table." The rest of the program was given in four scenes which depicted typical events in the lives of present day school children. The first scene was presented by 15 boys who were on a quest for ideas for making a commencement program in which 36 boys and girls could take part and not weary their audience. The second scene was a class meeting over which Miss Martha Jentz presided as chairman. This was a demonstration of a model class meeting conducted by parliamentary rule. Miss Marjorie McCarey outlined a program for commencement day making the points that the program should have a purpose and on the eve of Memorial day should not fail to recognize the service of those who saved the nation. She said that it should also tell of the growth of the American school.

Miss McCarey's plan was accepted and the class voted that it should have a dress rehearsal on May 29. In the rehearsal, Alexander Manier gave Lincoln's Gettysburg address and Harold Woehler gave the address which Wilson made 50 years later. These were followed by a group of poems by current writers on American ideals. Addresses on these ideals were given by Marjorie Sorenson, Lillian Gabriel, Luella Giese, Beatrice Miller, Rita McKenney, Marjorie McCarey. Other recitations were given by Dorothy Ovitt, Gilbert Strohofer, Bert Fish, Hilda Brandt, Mary Ricker, Dorothy Bell, and Lillian Gabriel.

GROWTH OF IDEA

At the end of the rehearsal Rachel Riesenweber presented the results of new methods in reading. Theresa Wankey gave a demonstration of banking in connection with studies in thrift and Ethel Stallman gave a survey of the American school. She brought out the facts that the school is wholly a growth of the last 50 years. She showed that when the Civil war ended there were in 36 states, 7,000,000 children in school, which was only 59 per cent of the children of school age. Each child attended school 78 days a year which was an average of only 44 days a year for all the school age children. Now there are 30,000,000 of school age children and 25,000,000 are in school. The school population is equal to eight states the size of Wisconsin. The people now pay according to locality and interest from $27 to $272 per pupil per year for schools.

The program brought out that the main note of the gospel of the school is work and the training of the largest army in the country to fight off ignorance, idleness, anarchy and all that is opposed to the founders of the nation. The final scene was graduation. Miss Lois Kloehn read Kipling's "Can You Do It?" and Miss Martha Jentz gave the valedictory.

KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM

In the afternoon the kindergarten gave an outdoor program for parents and friends. A series of charming little plays, songs, games and dances were given by the children who were for the afternoon of the family of Ben Greet.

Those who were given diplomas include: Alfred Baker, William Bauer, Dorothy Bell, Hilda Brandt, Clarence Buss, Alvin Casperson, Beth Fish, Lillian Gabriel, Luella Giese, Grace Haberman, Ervin Herzfeldt, Martha Jentz, Lois Kloehn, Marjorie McCarey, Rita McKenney, Alexander Manier, Ethel Merkl, Norman Michels, Beatrice Miller, Vernon Neuman, Dorothy Ovitt, Verna Patson, Harold Peterson, Lena Place, Raymond Prash, Mary Ricker, Rachael Riesenweber, Glen Smith, Marjorie Sorenson, Ethel Stallman, George Stewart, Marion Stewart, Gilbert Strohofer, Raymond Verstegen, Theresa Wankey, Ora Winter, Harold Woehler, Eldie Wolfgram and Morris Yentz.

The standard tests have been given in the school and show the class which is going out to have a median reading efficiency of a tenth grade. A large number of the teachers of the school will attend summer sessions in this state and in Illinois while one or two will be in California institutions for the summer session. The teachers will leave this week for their homes.

LITTLE CHUTE HAS EVENING PARADE

In order to make it possible for the citizens generally to attend, the village of Little Chute held its Memorial exercises at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Most of the men are employed during the day.

Headed by the band, the procession formed at the village hall with all the former service men, village officials and civic societies and citizens in line and marched to the cemetery.

The exercises at the cemetery were in charge of the Rev. J. S. Sprangers of St. John church.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep children's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this cannot possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last for months. Be sure and ask for "Mulsified." adv.

The Perfect Refrigerator

The manner in which cold, dry air constantly circulates in an Automatic prevents moisture and mildew. Foods will not spoil or become tainted, but always be cold, sweet and wholesome.

The Automatic circulation keeps air constantly passing over the ice, thus purifying it. Food odors will not mix. Your milk will not taste of onions, your butter will not taste of melon or fish.

You get more refrigeration for less ice in an Automatic because there are eight honestly-built, heat-resisting, cold-retaining walls.

Because these eight walls keep the heat out, and the cold in, you use much less ice than in other refrigerators.

You can pay more, but you can't buy more.

54 GRADUATES OF LINCOLN SCHOOL GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Interesting Program Is Offered At Commencement Exercises

A commencement program which not only demonstrated the kinds of work done by the students in the eighth grade of the Lincoln school, but showed that the students at that age are thinking in terms of civic and world development, was given Tuesday evening at Lawrence Memorial chapel. The diplomas were presented by Ben J. Rohan, principal. Dr. Earl Baker, who has been doing some music directing in the Second District, gave a short talk on music in the public schools.

Addresses of the program were original with the students and were the result of the special work which they have been doing in their interest groups or clubs. The work of the salesmanship class was shown in a paper by Miss Louise Mary Currie, while that of the forestry group was presented by Wilder E. Schmalz, nursing group by Ione Pauline Peterson and Robert F. Matz, Jr. radio club by Staber William Reese, automechanics club by Carl E. Nelson. Music for the program was furnished by student groups including the school orchestra, its girls glee club, boys glee club and chorus.

RULE FOR SUCCESS

In Miss Currie's speech, she gave the following motto for the salesmanship class: "To do the right thing at the right time in the right way; to do some things better than they were ever done before; to eliminate errors; to know both sides of a question; to be courteous; to be an example; to work for the love of the work; to anticipate requirements; to develop resources; to organize no impediments; to master circumstances; to act from reason rather than rule; to be satisfied with nothing short of perfection." She closed by saying that if the students who go forth with this motto continued to live by it, prosperity and happiness will be their reward.

"The city of Appleton depends upon timber for its existence," said Wilder Schmalz in his paper "What Timber Means to Appleton." "If we can't get pulpwood to run the numerous paper mills in Appleton and vicinity, the mills will have to move to a place where there are lots of trees and where they can grow easily."

WORLD THOUGHT

In her paper on "First Aid," Miss Peterson told of the importance of sending for a doctor as the first instruction. She then explained kinds of bandages.

After tracing the development of radio from the ship usage to the present parlor vogue, Staber Reese struck this keynote of world thought: "The very need of control of the air will be a powerful factor for world organization and peace."

Carl Nelson's paper on "Auto Mechanics" showed the importance of the automobile industry and of the part which automobiles are playing in modern life. He said:

"The automobile has revolutionized transportation to the extent that the railroad is no longer the only key to means of traveling. We are progressing and in our progress it seems to me, we are far more just to the mass of people that we were yesterday when only a choice few were privileged to see the beautiful scenery and the inviting possibilities of our land."

PRESENT DIPLOMAS

Diplomas were given to the following young people: Helen Beach, Nathan Belling, Nona Buell, Clarence Christen, Lawrence Christen, Louise Currie, Hilda Dettmann, Clement Gerhartz, Esther Grube, Arthur Hagen, Harold Hammer, Donna Herrmann, Elmer Horn, Carl Jehe, Leone Koffarnus, Alvin Krabbe, Wilmer Krueger, Hilda Kuckenbecker, Florence Kuether, Carl Kunitz, Dorothy Lappin, Elborn Larsen, William Lyons, Robert Matz, Francis McAllister, Grace Melzer, Howard Melzer, Nelda Meyer, William Meyer, Robert Mitchell, Orville Myse, Harriet Nagreen, Carl Nelson, Donald Peterson, Ione Petersen, Staber Reese, Helen Reineck, Carolyn Schael, Sterling Schmalz, Wilder Schmalz, John Schneider, Mabel Schultz, Ralph Sell, William Thiede, Claude Thompson, Irma Tietz, Dorothy Trittin, Gwendolin Van de Worka, Martha Weigt, Lloyd Whitefoot, Edith Wilson, Shirley Worby, Anna Yonts, Carleton Zuelke.

UNUSUAL VALUES

Thruout Our Store.

No matter how stoutly people maintain that they resent having anything "put over on them," they really only resent it when the "putting over" is so blunt that it can't possibly pass for anything else.

This holds good of so-called "sales." The secret of "sales" is merely this: A merchant marks up his prices enough to permit an apparent slashing during the "sale," these "sale" prices being the prices that should have prevailed right along. So the public pays inflated prices eleven months in the year to get "sale" prices one month.

Our policy is to have absolutely rock-bottom prices every day in the year. Every day is a real "sale" day in our 371 Stores.

SOLDIER TRAINING ABSOLUTELY FREE UNDER U. S. PLAN

High School Young Men Are Urged To Spend Month At Camp Custer

High school students and others who are planning to attend the citizens military training camp at Camp Custer, Battle Creek, Mich., from Aug. 1 to Sept. 1, can secure application blanks or any desired information from Major Albert Tucker or Alfred T. Bradford.

The thirty days of fun and good training can be had for the asking. The applicant will receive his transportation and food en route to and from camp from the government and while at the camp he will be fed, clothed, housed and taken care of by trained leaders without cost to himself or to his family.

People May Furnish New Hospital Rooms

Fraternal orders and individuals desiring to furnish rooms in the new building of St. Elizabeth hospital and to have their names and those of people in whose memory the rooms are furnished on the door, may make arrangements at the hospital with Mother Vita at once. Announcement of the classification of the rooms according to the cost of furniture was made on Tuesday. Several rooms have already been spoken for by fraternal organizations in Neenah and Menasha.

Furniture costs have been kept as low as possible and the cost in the three classes of rooms will be $250, $300 and $350; the latter amount is for the larger rooms which have bath, telephone and every possible convenience. It is estimated that the furnishings of the rooms will be among the best in the northwest and that the cost is anywhere from $100 to $150 less than which is charged in many places for the furnishing of a room.

No date has as yet been set for the opening of the hospital since many small details of finishing are being held up by the lack of material which fails to arrive. The mother general of the order of St. Francis is expected to arrive in Appleton within a short time to make final plans for the hospital.

Those who wish to furnish a room now have a choice of 200. The best selection can be made at once. Bronze name plates on the doors are especially designed.

EXPECT 2,000 AT RURAL GRADUATION

Plans are well under way for the commencement program of the county schools in Appleton on June 8 under the direction of Miss Florence Jenkins. The program includes a picnic lunch at Alicia park followed by a moving picture program in the afternoon and the presentation of diplomas.

It is expected that 2,000 parents of the children will be in Appleton on that day. It has been customary for several years to have the county graduation program in Appleton.

MUCH MORE CHEESE AND BUTTER MADE DURING LAST YEAR

Production Of These Gains 114,000,000 Pounds In Country In Year

Washington—Increased production of about 100,000,000 pounds of creamery butter and an increase of 14,000,000 pounds of cheese produced in the United States last year as compared with 1921 are indicated in reports received by the United States Department of agriculture. Production of 1,153,515,000 pounds of creamery butter as compared with 1,055,000,000 pounds in 1921 and with 863,577,000 pounds in 1920 is reported. Production of cheese is placed at 370,000,000 pounds compared with 356,000,000 pounds in 1921 and with 362,000,000 pounds in 1920.

Increased production of ice cream is also shown. The department reports production from 2,673 factories of 161,000,000 gallons last year as compared with 148,000,000 gallons from 2,642 factories in 1921, and with 148,000,000 gallons from 2,427 factories in 1920. Oleomargarine production fell to 185,000,000 pounds last year as compared with 121,000,000 pounds in 1921 and with 370,000,000 pounds in 1920. The output of condensed and evaporated milk was 3,431,000,000 pounds compared with 1,464,000,000 pounds in 1921 and with 1,578,000,000 pounds in 1920.

SCHOOL REPORT BLANKS ARE READY FOR USE

A complete supply of blanks for school reports has been received at the office of the city superintendent of schools for distribution among the various schools of the city. The reports are to be filled in and returned to the office before the closing of school. Miss Carrie E. Morgan, has been directing her work for several months from her bed at St. Elizabeth hospital where she has been confined on account of a broken hip.

GRADUATES GIVEN OFFICE POSITIONS

All the graduate students in the commercial department of Appleton high school have been placed in positions if their scholastic standings in the department were higher than 80. Through the efforts of Miss Decima Salisbury, every student who wished a position was placed. Miss Salisbury feels that she cannot give a recommendation to a student who was poor in his work.

Some of the students who were in the cooperative sales class during the year also have been placed. The merchants who took part in the sales plan have been asked to put in these students as extra help during the summer whenever possible. A cooperative class in office practice work may be established next year in connection with the commercial department.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP URGED BY PUPILS

Commencement Program Is Presented By Graduates Of Fourth Ward

The commencement program at the Fourth ward school on Tuesday evening was the culmination of the work of the students in civics and English. A large crowd was present to hear the program of which the keynotes were thrift and health.

The papers read by the students were original and emphasized the qualities which the students felt were necessary for good citizens. They showed that the family is an important training school for better citizens because around the home is centered the life of the community. Honor and respect for the flag was the subject of another paper, while the idea of the school as a community was taken up in another. Still another paper on civic beauty told of the pride of Appleton citizens for their city.

Diplomas were given to Alfred Gelbke, Alice Arndt, Lester Bauernfiend, Mabel Chall, Robert MacGregor, Ella Totzke, Wenzel Kuba, Hattie Reffke, Mae Hayes and Harry Koehnke. The class was unusually small this year.

RECITAL TO PRECEDE CHAUTAUQUA TOUR

Miss Lucy Westgate, who will give a recital at 8:20 Thursday evening in Peabody hall at Lawrence Conservatory of Music, will appear during the comming summer and winter as flutist and reader for Midwest Chautauqua company. Miss Westgate will be assisted Thursday evening by Miss Lucille Meusel, pianist from the studio of Prof. Ludolph Arens.

C. O. F. WORKERS WILL REPORT ON CAMPAIGN

A joint meeting of fortieth anniversary membership campaign teams and members of Catholic Order of Foresters will be held at 7:30 Friday evening, June 1, at Forester home at which reports will be submitted and plans made for the anniversary program. The campaign was to have closed a week ago, but the time was extended ten days to make it possible to see additional prospects.

GREEN BAY WINS COMEDY OF ERRORS BY 16 TO 10 SCORE

Wretched Game Is Made Up Of Flock Of Errors, Passes And Poor Plays

Higgins And M. Lamers Driven From Box By Heavy Green Bay Assault As Both Teams Play Punk Baseball

A terrible exhibition of what passed for baseball was dished out to some 1,200 fans and fanettes at Brandt park Wednesday afternoon. After two hours and fifty minutes of baseballs, passes and errors the scoreboard showed 16 tallies for Green Bay and 10 for Appleton. The score indicates a pretty punk game but it was even punker than that. Sandlot teams would have been ashamed to hand out that kind of entertainment.

One team was as bad as the other. It would be equivalent to splitting a hair to state that Green Bay or Appleton played the poorer game. Green Bay scored its sixteen runs on sixteen hits, seven errors and seven passes while Appleton turned fourteen hits, five passes and eight errors into ten runs.

NOTHING STARTLING

Usually a free hitting game has a lot of interest for the fans because of the uncertainty which accompanies all kinds of clouting but the fiasco Wednesday afternoon was monotonous. What few good plays were made were mostly accidents and the spectacular was conspicious by its absence, as the novelists say.

Higgins, who started the game for Appleton, had a hard row to hoe and was wigwagged from the mound at the start of the sixth inning and Marty Lamers took his place. Marty didn't have anything except his glove and they cracked him pretty hard. He was blasted out of the box in the ninth inning by two homers, a double and a single before anyone was out and his brother Ted took up the burden. Ted managed to retire the side without a run.

HIT SMITHSON HARD

Smithson was hit plenty hard and was almost as wild as Higgins but bore down a little harder in the pinches, otherwise they might be playing yet. He was hammered for 14 hits. A flock of errors assisted materially in scoring Appleton's ten runs.

Higgins was as wild as a March hare and his tendency to transport men to the bases kept him in hot water pretty much of the time.

He started out well, seting down the side in order, while Smithson got his baptism of fire in the first frame. Len Smith whiffed, Weidell doubled, Sylvester sacrificed him along to third. Brautigan got a lift on Moakler's boot and Marty Lamers sent both runners home with a wallop to centerfield for three bases. Marty scored on the play when Metten heaved to the stand relaying the ball in from the field.

IN HOLE AGAIN

Two passes and a hit put Higgins in the hole in the second. Bergerino's lanxiety on the bases nipped a possible rally. He was caught trying to reach third on Britz' dinky hit over Brautigan into left field. T. Lamers scored another run for Appleton in the second. He was passed to first and made the circuit on hits by Higgins and Weidell.

The Baymen came mighty close to evening up the score in their half of the third. A hit batsmen, two errors, a double by Reik and two passes scored three runs. Higgins' pass to Britz in that frame forced one man over the plate.

SCORE FOUR RUNS

Brautigan's alleged ballplayers dented the rubber four times in their half of the third and it looked like a walkaway for the home crew. Hits by Sylvester, Brauitgan and Delmore mixed with passes to M. Lamers, T. Lamers and Higgins and an error by Metten were responsible for the tallies. The four runs were scored on one hit. Sylvester batted twice in that frame.

Most of the big advantage was wiped out in Green Bay's half of the fourth. Higgins had all kinds of trouble locating the plate and when he did groove 'em the enemy lambasted the ball with might and main. Three sets of spikes were chased over the home station before three men were retired. Three hits, two passes and a bull was the combination.

Brautigan started the home half of the fourth with a safe blow but Mr. Smithson bore down a little after that and he got away without a run being scored, much to the amazement of the assembled populace. Mr. Higgins didn't do so well, however. The hostiles hemmed and hawed around the plate long enough to get two free tickets and Moakler showed his appreciation of this generosity by busting the ball to the left field fence for two bases, whereupon the enemy hustled across the plate for another tally. Delmore started something for the home crew in the local half of the fifth but he was forced at second and the next two gents passed out without a struggle.

HIGGINS IS BANISHED

Brautigan figured Higgins had had enough punishment for one afternoon and Marty Lamers was on the hill in his place in the sixth inning. He got Reik to roll out to shortstop but the next bozos lammed the ball for singles. Smithson forced Britz at second and then Mr. Metten, who switched to the portside of the plate when a righthander went on the mound, cracked the apple into left field for two bases, scoring Bergerino and Smithson. Glick kept up the slaughter by singling to Weidell and Metten hustled home when Weidell tangled his legs with the ball and kicked it all over centerfield. It would have been funny if it wasn't so tragic. Marty put something on the ball he pitched to Knapp and by dint of considerable effort the side was retired.

Smithson got out of the home half of the sixth unhurt only by the skin of his teeth. Sylvester and Brautigan cracked his offerings for a couple of safe hits. M. Lamers got on when Metten messed his grounder but Weisgerber slammed a hot one at Britz who doubled Marty off first for a double play. Ted Lamers then struckout to kill the home fans' hopes.

MORE TROUBLE

Poor Marty had a peck of trouble in the seventh. Weidell dropped Moakler's skyscraper to start with. Williams got a life while Moakler was being retired at second. Reik hustled a single to score Williams, and Red Smith, playing second, mussed up a wallop from Bergrino's bat and Reik scored. Britz grounded out to Weisgerber for the third out.

Like the fifth and sixth innings, the home half of the seventh started auspiciously with two locals busting hits only to be stranded on the sacks when the next three fellows failed to come through with safe drives.

Lamers got away pretty well in the eighth inning. Glick singled after two were out and then Knapp sent a sizzling liner right at Marty's middle which Marty either had to catch or get killed. There was nothing doing in the home half of the eighth and then came the terrible ninth. Moakler cracked the pellet clear over the leftfield fence into the car tracks for a starter. Williams blazed a liner against the rightfield fence. Reik laved the ball into centerfield for two bases and then Bergerino slammed it out of the lot for the second homer of the inning. He also slammed Marty out of the box. Marty went to shortstop and his brother Ted tried pitching with pretty good success. He passed the first man to face him, the next flied out to right and then Boots put on a lot of stuff and fanned the next two. That ended the agony.

It might be said in passing that it probably would have been a better ballgame if Stoney McGlynn, who was sent here to umpire, had been sent to some other city. Stoney means all right but good intentions don't get him anywhere in a ball game. It isn't customary for this paper to razz an umpire but Stoney has got something coming. Both teams kicked constantly on his ball and strike guesses and from the press box it looked as if he missed a lot of them. Stoney's performance was about on par with the rest of the gang on the field.

X rays are being used to search bales of imported goods for smuggled articles.

PINKEY CHARGES REFEREE UNFAIR

Chicago—The vanquished Pinkey Mitchell, holder of the junior welterweight belt, issued the following statement shortly after the bout:

"We were in a clinch," Pink said. "Miller grabbed by left arm and broke me loose. He started to turn me away and as he did so permitted Leonard to step around behind and hit me on the chin.

"He made no effort to break Leonard's hold at the time, permitting Leonard to creep all the way behind him before he would release his hold on my arm. I did not have a chance to protect myself, my chin being wide open for the right hand punch that put me down.

"I'm not a poor loser, but I'd like to get Leonard in Milwaukee or New York, where I will receive a square deal and I'll show him that I'll whip him just as I did during the first nine rounds Tuesday night. I think Benny is a poor excuse as a lightweight champion. I have met greater fighters than he and I'll bet my life that he will never go the limit, if I get him again.

"I had him wobbly and holding on several times in the fight and if I ever meet him where I'd been given the same treatment as he there will be the same story to write as you are writing now, only it would be the opposite way and there would be no technicalities connected with it."

DEPERE AMATEURS COP 18-5 VICTORY

Kaukauna Home Players Lose In One-sided Battle On Home Grounds

Kaukauna fans were forced to look on Memorial day while the DePere Home Players treated the home team to a 145 running. McCory, the Electric City first baseman, and Nick Kilgas, catcher, succeeded in getting next to Parsley's twisters for a two-bagger apiece.

Batteries: DePere—Parsley, Webber and Roland; Kaukauna—Pfund, Giesbers, Kraft, LeMair, and N. Kilgas.

The Appleton Home Players did not play Green Bay Wednesday, owing to the fact that several of the players of both teams were out of town. Next Sunday the locals play Menasha at Menasha and Manager Joe Mayerske requests all the players to appear for practice at four o'clock at 5 o'clock Thursday evening in order to get into trim for the coming contest.

150,000 Spectators See Tommy Milton Win Great 500-mile Race

Indianapolis Speeder, Driving American Made Car, Wins Classic—Five Injured In Two Smashups

Indianapolis, Ind.—Tommy Milton of St. Paul, Minn., achieved the ambition of his brilliant racing career on Wednesday, when, for the second time, he won the 500 mile automobile race over the Indianapolis motor speedway, repeating his victory of 1921 before a crowd of 150,000 spectators. It was the greatest throng that ever witnessed a sporting event in America. Milton's time for the 500 miles was 5:28:06:27, giving him an average speed of 91.5 miles an hour, as compared with the record breaking speed of 94.48 made a year ago.

Harry Hartz of Los Angeles, who finished second in the 1922 race, thundered across the finishing line five miles behind Milton, while Jimmy Murphy, winner of the 1922 race, was third, about thirteen miles behind Hartz. Hartz's time was 5:33:05:90, for an average of 90.06 miles an hour. Murphy finished in 5:40:36.64, for an average speed of 88:08 imiles an hour.

FLIVER TAKES FIFTH

Four place honors went to the veteran Earl Cooper, while L. L. Corum of Indianapolis furnished one of the mechanical surprises of the race by piloting a specially built "fliver" into fifth place. Frank Elliott, a California driver, finished sixth and Eddie Hearne, seventh. Max Sailer, one of the three German entries, was eighth. Prince de Cystria, a French entry, was ninth. Phil Shafer, driving an Indianapolis machine, was ninth. Christian Werner, another of the German entries, finished eleventh, just outside of the prize money.

Milton, who collected about $35,000 as his reward for victory, gave a wonderful exhibition of gameness, skill and daring, as he pushed every mile of the race by the thundering speed marvels attempting to defeat him. Howard Wilcox, an Indianapolis driver, shared in Milton's triumph for after his own car was eliminated, he relieved Milton, whose hands were painfully blistered as a result of gripping the wheel. Wilcox drove 115 miles of the race, taking the wheel at the 260 mile mark to enable Milton to have his hands treated and bandaged. Milton went back into the race at the 375 mile mark, two laps in the lead.

The race resulted in two serious accidents, in which three school boy spectators from LaFayette Ind., were injured, one perhaps gravely. Christian Lautenschlager, a German entry, crashed into a concrete retaining wall on his fifteenth lap, but miraculously escaped death. Jacob Krauss, his mechanican, was taken to the field hospital, but his injuries were not as serious as first reported. Krauss was the only mechanician in the race, as all other racers drove alone.

CRASHES THROUGH FENCE

Tom Alley of Indianapolis, a veteran racer, was in the second smashup of the day. In attempting to pass a car on the southwest turn of the track while speeding nearly 100 miles an hour, Alley's car skidded, overturned and crashed through the fence, seriously injuring Herbert Shoup, 16, of LaFayette, who suffered a skull fracture at the base of the brain. Shoup's two companions, Charles Elliott and William Goetz, also were so badly injured that they were taken to a hospital.

SCREENINGS

Going down!

Weidell had a poor day in the field, missing two of his three chances.

Weisgerber looked pretty bad at the plate, fanning four times in five trips.

That ninth inning proved that Marty's once-mighty arm has seen its best days.

Higgins didn't have much more than Marty and he was just lobing them up toward the end of the fifth.

Stoney McGlynn came in for a lot of razzing and he had it coming. His guessing on balls and strikes was atrocious.

Messers Brautigan, Sylvester and Miller better take a hunch from these last two games and look around for some new material.

Babe Ruth Joe Reik was the hitting demon of the afternoon, cracking out a triple two doubles and a single in six trips to the plate.

Bergerino, former Appleton shortstop slammed two balls over the fence in the ninth. The first went foul by a few feet but the next cleared the barrier near centerfield.

EXPERTS SQUABBLE OVER LIGHTWEIGHT DECISION

New York—New York's boxing experts are in disagreement Tuesday over the judge's decision Wednesday night which removed the junior lightweight crown from the head of Johnny Dundee and placed it on the brow of Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, after a fifteen round contest in the Velodrome.

Half of the experts think Dundee should have retained his 130 pound championship or been awarded nothing but a draw, while the others agree with the judges that Bernstein had seven rounds, Dundee three, and that five were even.

QUESTIONS

ONE—If a fielder drops a fly ball but recovers in time to force a runner at another base, is he charged with an error?

TWO—If the third strike is a wild pitch that the catcher is unable to hold, the batsman reaching first, is the catcher charged with an error?

THREE—If a player tries to steal a base, and the catcher's throw easily beats him to the bag, is the runner credited with a stolen base if the infielder drops the ball in making the touch?

FOUR—When the umpire rules infield fly how is the advancement of the runners determined?

FIVE—Batted ball clears the fence but strikes an advertising board erected about a yard back of the fence. It falls back on playing territory and runner is retired at third. What about it?

ANSWERS

ONE—The fielder is exempted from an error on a dropped fly if able to force a runner at another base.

TWO—The catcher is not charged with an error for his failure to handle the third strike, same being a wild pitch.

THREE—No stolen base is allowed. The infielder handling the ball is charged with an error if it is apparent he had the runner attempting the steal.

FOUR—Runners can advance on an infield fly the same as on any other fly ball that is caught or dropped.

FIVE—It is a home run. The moment it passed out of playing territory that ended it. There was no longer a chance for a play on the runner.

YANKS CINCH FIRST AS RED SOX TWICE DEFEAT ATHLETICS

Giants Whip Dodgers As O'Connell Knocks Third Homerun In Three Days

By Associated Press

Chicago—With the American league eastern teams returning to their home lots and the National easterners starting the western invasion Thursday, the Yankees, still well at the top of their list, returned home with the best record ever hung by a Yankee team on an out of town assignment.

They start their home tenure against the cellarite Boston Red Sox Thursday.

The American league champions captured seventeen of the 20 contests played against four western and two eastern teams. They lost only one series during the trip, that to Philadelphia, winning one of three games. The Yanks made a clean sweep of the other series with the exception of Detroit, the Tigers taking one game of four.

The Yankees widened the gap between themselves and the second place Philadelphia Athletics by winning both of Wednesday's double headers at Washington, 6 to 4 and 9 to 5. The Athletics lost their stride when the lowly Bostonians whipped them twice, 6 to 5 and 6 to 2.

Cleveland narrowed the gap between the Indians and the Athletics by dividing its double header with Chicago which took the afternoon game 7 to 2, and lost in the morning 7 to 6. The fighting Tigers broke even on the day by defeating St. Louis in the second game 4 to 3. St. Louis won in the morning, 10 to 2.

In the National league the champion New York Giants halted the pelting Brooklyn Dodgers, well up in third place, by taking the second game of the day 9 to 6. Brooklyn won the first tilt 5 to 2. Jimmy O'Connell, whose sale by San Francisco cost the Giants $75,000 helped himself to his third home run in as many days in the afternoon game.

The Pittsburg Pirates drew closer to the Giants by taking both contests from Chicago 5 to 4 and 10 to 2. Cincinnati beat St. Louis two times 4 to 2 and 5 to 0, and Philadelphia did the same for the Boston Braves 5 to 3 and 6 to 1.

The Giants and Dodgers established a new National league attendance record when they played to 45,000 at the afternoon game.

Babe Ruth bagged a homer in both games of the Memorial day bill and ran his string to eleven.

The veteran Al Mamaux, released from the Dodgers recently and now with the Reading club in the International league let the Baltimore Orioles down with one hit, shutting them out.

"Spark Plug" Adams the diminutive infielder of the Cubs played the outfield in the afternoon game for Chicago against the Pirates, Hack Miller, the strong man, being unable to play because of being hit on the head by a pitched ball in the morning game.

Jimmy Dykes, who has been playing a star game for the onrushing Athletics injured his leg during the morning game with the Red Sox and tried to swing into action in the afternoon but was forced to retire in the second inning.

Dixie Leverette, star pitcher of the White Sox, who has been on a hospital list with a lame shoulder, worked against the Indians in the afternoon game and added joy to the White Sox camp by his performance.

Heinie Groh and Jimmy O'Connell of the Giants, and Max Carey of the Pirates were memorial day home run hitters in the National league, while Babe Ruth with two circuit drives, Ira Flagstead and George Burns of the Red Sox, and Joe Hauser of the Athletics, were the American league four ply clouters.

LAST CHANCE FOR ENROLING IN 'Y' SWIMMING CLASS

Institution Starts June 4, And All Entries Must Be In Thursday Night

Arguments in favor of learning to swim are so many that it is needless to start enumerating them, and with the facilities offered in Appleton for men, women, and boys to learn the art in a manner as safe and agreeable as that offered by the Y. M. C. A. and the Appleton Woman's club, there can be no excuse for anyone to go through life lacking that feeling of security on the water produced by the ability to swim well, according to A. D. Jensen, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. With a bit of application and interest on the part of the novice, this may easily be acquired by anyone who wishes to enroll in the classes to be started under the tutorship of Mr. Jensen on June 4.

The first part of the program scheduled by Mr. Jensen is to instil confidence in his pupils. This will be done by accustoming the beginners to the water, by making them feel that going under does not necessarily mean that they will drown. First of all, the novice is told to put his face in the water and open his eyes. Thus he will find that it is possible to see under water. Then he is told, and the fact is demonstrated to him, that the human body with the lungs full of air is lighter than the water and will float. Taking a deep breath, he stoops forward, grasps both knees tightly with his arms, and falls face forward into the water. The feet are raised from the bottom, and the pupil floats about like an empty jug with the cork in it. In one second, a person can inhale enough air to float him thus for twenty seconds.

Having done this once or twice, the lessons go further rapidly, and in a few attempts the rudiments of swimming have been learned.

Thursday, May 31, is the last day for making applications for enrolment in the classes. Women and girls still have ample opportunity to forward theirs to Miss Emily Adams, physical director of the Appleton womans club.

NEW LONDON BOY MAKING HIS MARK

New London—Fritz Sengstock, a New London boy, formerly with the Milwaukee Brewers, who is now playing baseball with Danville, Ill., in the Three I league, has been going good this season and a recent sport notice credits him with one of the most sensational and seldom seen plays in the history of baseball. "Few Danville people would believe that when Sengstock singled in the last Terre Huute game, scoring three runners, that he had performed an unusual stunt, but he did. Only five times has this same stunt happened in the major leagues in the history of baseball. It has not occurred since 1919, when E. F. Meusci of Philadelphia, then, singled off Cadore with Brooklyn."

FAHLSTROM WINS FOR HORTONVILLE

New Twirler Cops 8-3 Victory From Marion In Initial Game Wednesday

Hortonville may well be proud of its newly acquired hurler, Carl Fahlstrom. In Wednesday's game with Marion, he struck out seven of the hostile batsmen in a row in the fourth, fifth, and sixth, copping an 8-3 victory for his team. A number of sensational plays kept the large crowd watching the game on their toes and when the Fremont team invades Hortonville next Sunday it is expected that the grounds will be filled to capacity.

Batteries: Hortonville —Fahlstrom and Hoier; Marion—Stearbacker and Stumpf.

2 STATE LEAGUERS SIGNED BY ILLINOIS CLUB, REPORT SAYS

Green Bay And Fond du Lac May Lose Smithson And Brundage

Racine — Two Wisconsin State League stars, members of the Fond du Lac and Green Bay clubs, are reported to have signed here to play with the Centralia, Illinois team.

Centralia was hard up for good pitching and they had opened negotiations with Earl Smithson of Green Bay and Brundage, the latter recently acquired by Fond du Lac. Brundage left Racine with the Centralia club but Smithson has not joined as yet.

Smithson is one of the best pitchers in the league and his loss would be keenly felt by Green Bay if he departed at this time. Officials of the Bay club denied that Smithson had signed with Centralia. Smithson knocks down some good jack pitching for the State Leaguers and has been offered several responsible positions. The Green Bay authorities consider it highly improbable that he would sign with any other club.

Jap Barbeau will have to scout around for a new left fielder, now that Brundage has left with the Illinois team. Brundage was being relied upon to play left field in place of Leo Steen against Menasha this Sunday. He is also a pitcher of ability and could be used in the event that the regular hurler went bad at a crucial stage.

ALASKAN AND HUDSON SEAL

Natural Fur Seal and there is only one species though found in various places, is a rare animal whose fur is of such quality and beauty that the meager supply cannot begin to fill the demand

It is not surprising therefore, that a variety of substitutes have been produced to serve in Nature's stead—some good, some bad, many quite bad, many quite indifferent.

Right here is where we do not want to get out of step—good substitutes, when sold honestly as such, are not by any means tobe condemned, especially when the genuine article, because of its scarcity, is beyond the financial reach of many who would enjoy it.

"Hudson Seal," "Near Seal," "Electric Seal," are in no sense seal. Each is the skin of some other animal from which, like seal itself, the coarse hairs have been extracted by machinery. Skillfull dyeing completes the imitation, which in some instances can scarcely be detected from the genuine.

Of all substitutes, the so-called "Hudson Seal" excels. In reality it is muskrat, which is a very good fur in itself and may creditably be sold as an imitation and NOT as a species of seal, presumably from the vicinity of Hudson Bay

"French Seal" "Baltic Seal" are disguising titles of seal-dyed coney a small animal that is found in France. As a skin, coney does not rank as high as muskrat but that does not necessarily prevent its being used as an imitation of seal at its proper price level, provided again it IS sold as seal-dyed coney and NOT as a foreign species of genuine seal.

Build with Brick

Figuring initial cost and expense of maintenance over a number of years, a brick home costs no more than one of less permanent construction.

Brick walls are a protection against heat and cold. The use of brick as a building material will result in a saving of fuel in cold weather, while insuring delightful coolness during the hot summer weather.

Brick has high fire resistive qualities, and on account of this fact, brick dwellings get the benefit of a lower insurance rate

This Bureau will aid you in the selection of such plans. It has for free distribution a booklet giving exterior views and floor plans of 60 brick homes. Just clip the attached coupon, enclose two cents in stamps for return postage, and the booklet will be sent to you by return mail.

STATE LEAGUE NOTES

Old Hank Schultz celebrated his return to State league baseball by pitching the Marinette-Menominee club to an 8 to 1 victory over Oshkosh. The veteran bender had a world of stuff and he was never in trouble as Beebe's birelings found his offerings rather lean picking.

Millaeger the Kaukauna second sacker, seems to have found his batting eye this season. Maybe the change of pasture has done him good. 'Irish' is also fielding well for the Stumpfites and he crabs away at the umpires just as he did when with Oshkosh in the Valley loop last season.

Joe Reik, Green Bay's home run swatsmith continues to hit 'em right on the nose. The Milwaukee boy has a pair of circuit drives to his credit. His smash Sunday against Trentman at Kaukauna cleared the far away left field fence with plenty to spare. Reik looks mighty good at the plate this year.

Smith, the Appleton right fielder, is coming along nicely and bids fair to be one of the best gardeners in the circuit before the end of the season. He takes a clean cut at the ball and gets down to first in Paddock style.

Owner Harris of the Fond du Lac Red Sox broke into the battle front Sunday against Menasha, holding down the left field post in the closing innings of the game. The Magnate hasn't got a bad batting eye as he connected for a single in three times at bat.

The M. M. Twins have picked up a promising looking recruit in Uecke who is making a strong bid for an outfield berth. The youngster handles himself well in the field and has a strong throwing arm. He hits well and against Oshkosh on Sunday got to Lathrop for a stinging four-bagger.

Bixby is playing a brilliant game for Oshkosh in the center garden. He is a home town product of the Sawdust City and has been in the game for a number of seasons but this is his first year with Oshkosh He got two hits off Schultz on Sunday, one of which was a circuit drive

Johnson, a Kaukauna boy, has won a berth with the Electric City club and Manager Eddie Stumpf thinks the youngster has the makings of a first class outer gardener Johnson still looks a bit shy at the plate but his fielding stands up well with the best in the McGillan loop.

Billy Liebl is beginning to smile again The win over-Appleton was pretty sweet to the Chairs' leader because it showed that with the advent of warm weather Buster Braun was right again. What's more Art Kores has begun hitting and his clouts will help Sheboygan to gain many a victory.

The Neenah-Menasha club is developing a punch on the offense that will make them dangerous contenders for the hunting. Although Rush's men aren't way up in the batting averages, they are hitting in pinches and this factor is paving the way for the Pails to remain on victory row.

FREE TUITION FOR ATHLETES STOPPED

Beloit Faculty Rules No More Alumni Scholarships Will Be Given

Beloit—The Beloit college faculty has taken official action to discontinue the practice of granting so-called "alumni athletic" scholarships by which students with ability in athletics were aided in meeting the cost of their tuition charges, according to a public announcement.

In commenting upon the faculty decision, Prof. E. S Haynes, chairman of the facutly athletic committee, pointed out that such faculty action was necessary to bring Beloit practices in accord with the rules of the Wisconsin Collegiate conference.

The plan of awarding "athletic scholarships" has been tried in Beloit college for the past two years By means of the plan alumni aid to students was recognized and brought under strict faculty supervision. Before the system was inaugurated, the Wisconsin colleges and other athletic rivals of Beloit were officially notified of Beloit's intention. According to college officials, no protests on the ground of the old state rule were made until after the system was thoroughly established

During the two years the plan has been successful in making it possible for students of meagre means to choose Beloit college without being penalized financially by tuition rates which they might not have to pay at various schools competing with Beloit It has been pointed out that the aid has been granted conditional on scholastic success, and that the class standings of the beneficiaries distinctly exceeds the average

During the summer months, June, July, August and September, the Free Public Library will be closed on Sunday.

In what year did Edward Ray win the American national open championship and who were the runners-up that year?

Edward Ray won the title in 1920 at the Inverness Club at Toledo, O., with a score of 295. The battle for the title that year was one of the most sensational ever staged. Harry Vardon, who came over with Ray, as well as Leo Diegel, Jack Burke and Jock Hutchinson finished just one stroke away.

If upon reaching the green a player discovers that his ball is resting against the flagstick, which is in the hole, what is the proper procedure in such a situation?

The player shall be entitled to remove the flagstick, and if the ball fall into the hole, the player shall be deemed to have holed out at his last stroke.

* * *

What are the rights of a player when some loose impediment on the putting green, in his opinion, interferes with his next shot?

Loose impediment may always be lifted from the putting green.

When a ball is driven into a permanent water, such as a brook or pond that is a regular part of the course, and it is impossible to find the ball, how should the next shot be played and what is the penalty for driving into the water and being unable to find the ball in play?

If able to recover the ball driven into the water it is customary to play the same ball. However, if unable to recover it, no additional penalty is attached for such failure. Simply drop a new ball, keeping the spot where the ball went into the water between you and the hole. You suffer a penalty of one stroke in such a position.

Can an amateur golfer write articles on golf for pay provided he is the actual author of same?

The rule relating to the forfeiture of amateur standing says: "A player forfeits his amateur standing if he receives pay for articles on the game which he did not actually write."

Traffic Count Would Show Where To Place Arterial Streets

A TRAFFIC count to ascertain the degree of congestion on the most traveled streets of Appleton should be undertaken by the city street department in order to guide the common council in adopting an arterial highway system for the city, according to suggestions made by several business men interested in arterial highways.

Such a count was undertaken two years ago by Professor Leonard S. Smith, city planner, in cooperation with the police department. Although these figures cannot be taken as an accurate index to the present traffic on the same streets, they probably show the ratio of traffic on the less traveled streets to that on the busiest thoroughfares.

It is to be noted from the survey that the greatest amount of traffic is on College-ave, the main commercial street, and on the route of state trunk highway 15 from the Foster st entrance to the Second ave entrance.

LAKE-ST BUSY ONE

The juncture of two traffic streams at Lake and Foster-sts, one from the Lake resorts, the other from Neenah and Menasha, make of Lake-st one of the busiest streets in the city. Although no streets intersect it, ten or eleven streets conect with it, and cutting in on Lake-st from these veins becomes a matter worthy of caution. Pearl-st, which is an extension of Lake-st, present just as serious a problem at the Water-st intersection and the Prospect st juncture.

This situation has been considered by Mr. Smith in his recommendation designating these streets as arterial highways and compelling intersecting traffic to stop before crossing or cutting in.

Of 1,558 vehicles passing over Lake-st one day in 1921, 78 per cent was through traffic from Menasha and 22 per cent was lake resort traffic, according to Professor Smith. Of 2,607 vehicles that passed over that street on another day, 1,264 came from Foster-st. On July 26 of that year 2,877 cars traveled on Lake-st bridge. This was from 6:30 in the morning to 6:30 in the evening.

FOLLOW ROUTE 15

Tourist traffic coming up Pearl st hill follows the route of highway 15 up Oneida-st. For that reason, of 2,677 vehicles that traveled on this street on Aug. 5, from 7 o'clock in the morning to 6 o'clock in the evening, 1,245 drove by way of Oneida-st, 816 on Appleton st and 616 on Lawrence-st, Mr. Smith observed.

Nevertheless, Appleton st was found to be a busies thoroughfare than Oneida st. On July 27, between 7 and 6 o'clock, 2,854 vehicles traveled on Appleton-st between College ave and Lawrence-st and 1,874 vehicles traveled on Oneida st.

"The traffic count on Oneida-st was 1,000 less because of the reduced capacity of the street, due to the double street car track and the practice of large interurban cars standing on that street for intervals of five minutes," said Mr. Smith in his report to the plan commission. "Local traffic has understood this danger and preferred the safer use of Appleton-st."

Diverting of through traffic from Menasha-rd over the Cherry-st bridge, when completed, and up College-ave, the widest and finest street in the city, will greatly relieve the traffic at the Appleton and Oneida intersections on College-ave, Mr. Smith declares.

MIGHT CONGEST BRIDGE

Routing of highway 18 over the Kimberly-rd will cause congestion on John-st bridge, it is feared. The traffic count on the bridge on July 26, 1921, showed 629 vehicles in 11 hours. On the Kimberly-rd, on July 28, it was 202 vehicles. Over this bridge passes also a large part of the Hilbert and Mamrowoc through traffic. Mr. Smith has recommended that the bridge be widened by placing the sidewalk on brackets outside the bridge, which would give the bridge a wheeling of 20 feet. Kimberly-rd and Maple Grove-st are among the streets recommended by the city planner as arterial highways.

State-rd, Second-ave and Carver-st are also considered by him as important avenues of traffic, because they are natural outlets. The count on Richmond-st at Second-ave, on Aug. 1 from 7 to 6 o'clock, was 401. The same day Second-ave at Richmond-st had 773. Second-ave at State-rd on Aug. 19, from 8 to 6 o'clock, had 460. The count on College ave at Appleton st, the busiest corner in the city, was 3,874 vehicles in eleven hours on July 27.

Since these counts were taken two years ago, the summer traffic on state highways in Appleton has at times almost doubled, according to various counts undertaken. The large number of automobiles purchased within the last two years has greatly augmented the traffic, and would in itself make a considerable difference in the count taken by the city planner.

Troubles Over, States Popular Hotel Man

"My friends all say I look better than I have in years, and I certainly do feel the part, too," recently said Geo. L Burke, popular day clerk at the Portland Hotel, 555 Main-st, Kansas City, Mo and a former resident of Youngstown, O., in relating his experience with Tanlac.

"Before taking Tanlac I had no appetite, and for two years had been almost a chronic sufferer from indigestion. Rheumatism, knife like pains in my back, headaches, dizzy spells and frayed nerves also added to my misery. I was losing weight, and had to strain every nerve and muscle to keep going.

"Well, Tanlac did away with all my troubles, added fifteen pounds to my weight, and put me in the pink of condition. I can't say enough for Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Take no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

TAKE COURT ALONG ON LIQUOR RAIDS FOR QUICK JUSTICE

Spread Of Bootlegging Causes Sentencing Of Offenders On Spot

By Associated Press

Kansas City, Mo.—When the mountain wouldn't come to Mohammed, Mohammed went to the mountain.

And, in this twentieth century, if bootleggers and moonshiners won't come to court make the court go to them, say officials of Clay county, Mo.

Liberty, county seat of Clay county, is the center of a populous district adjoining Kansas City. The spread of bootlegging and secret making of liquor has caused trouble in the last several months.

So a "gypsy" court has been organized and the county now has a portable judiciary.

The "gipsy" court uses a half dozen speedy motor cars and swoops down upon suspects, conducts a search, holds a trial and speeds away to jail with the convicted offenders—all within little more time than it takes to tell it.

In the caravan is Sheriff Joseph Elgin, Undersheriff John Clark, 25 deputies, Judge M. L. Swanner and Prosecuting Attorney Raymond Cummins.

The sheriff and deputies go ahead When they enter a house and find a still or contraband liquor, they call in the judge and court is convened on the spot.

Evidence does not have time to be lost or spirited away. Justice is meted out without red tape.

Most of the prisoners, taken by the traveling aggregation, plead guilty.

Recent convictions include a woman who is serving time in jail for selling intoxicants in her home.

AMERICANS HELP RECLAIM UNTILLED SOIL IN RUSSIA

Seed, Machinery And Cash Rehabilitating Farms Devastated By Recent Famine

By Associated Press

New York—Twelve hundred Ukrainian acres, barren during the years of famine, are being added each day to the vast garden plot into which the magic wand of American money and materials is rapidly transforming a section of untilled Russian plain. The story is told in cable dispatches to the American Jewish Joint Distribution committee from its representative in the famine area, Dr. Joseph Rosen.

In a district where even the seed for planting has disappeared in the scratching of bins for everything edible, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and the Dakotas have come to the rescue with thousands of bushels of choice seed corn. Relief workers in Russia are transplanting and reproducing this seed at 52 multiplication bases, whence it is distributed as fast as the land is prepared to receive it.

SELECT HARDY SEEDS

The varieties chosen for transplantation are the most hardy American farmers have been able to develop—a corn that will grow in the variable climate of southern Russia, where insufficient rainfall and actual drought was the chief cause of last year's famine.

Next on the scene is the American tractor, 75 powerful ones, each of them dragging two Russian 5-bottom plows, harrowing and seeding the land in a single operation, and each covering 15 acres a day. Using these machines augmented by 1,400 horses and $50 000 worth of horse-drawn implements, the relief organization believes it will have 100,000 acres of hitherto barren land seeded to grain before the spring planting season is over.

AID DAIRY FARMERS

Added to this activity is the inauguration of American methods in dairy farming and cheese making, which are being developed on an extensive scale in the famine district. Four hundred cows were purchased by the Americans and imported from other districts, to become the nucleus of a system of cooperative dairies in which the peasants rapidly are learning to participate.

Cheese factories followed, until now Dr Rosen reports, 21 of them, all cooperative, are in full bloom.

Divorce Easy But Rare In Moscow Now

By Associated Press

Moscow—Though extremely easy to secure under Soviet laws, divorces are decreasing in Moscow because of the housing shortage. Most Muscovites have to live at least two in a room, and however incompatible a couple may find life together, even this is easier than the task of finding new and separate quarters.

Marriages, on the other hand, are promoted by the housing shortage, for a person enjoying the rare privilege of having a large room to himself or herself finds little difficulty in persuading a perhaps roomless mate to share it.

Official statistics show there were only 49 divorces in Moscow in January, as compared to 2,214 marriages.

The requirements both of uniting and separating couples are brief and simple. If a man and woman desire to be married, they go before a magistrate and declare their wish. If they desire a divorce, they go before a magistrate and say they cannot get along. If only one of the parties wishes a divorce, the questioning may take a few minutes longer.

I SPIED TODAY

A master feature picture, "Trifling Women," will be shown at the Elite theater on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is one of the greatest pictures produced in months. Free tickets can be obtained by writing I Spied Items for the Post-Crescent. The stories must be interesting accounts of interesting events. Be sure to be specific in mentioning the time and place. Tickets should be called for at the Post-Crescent office as soon as possible after the items appear in print.

PEOPLE WILL NEVER LEARN

Wednesday at 12:15 as we were coming from the cemetery, I saw two ladies and one gentleman coming out of greenhouse and walked deliberately over a large flag which the wind had blown on porch floor.

MERRY ON SOFT DRINKS

Spectators were thrilled Tuesday night when they saw two women get off the Manitowoc bus and enter a nearby saloon. As we watched them through the window, they consumed two bottles a piece of some high priced drink and then they went to the next block where they entered another saloon. After drinking up four more bottles between them they concluded their appearance with a few jigs and disappeared down Appleton-st at a merry pace hand in hand.

ROLLS IN VEGETABLE BED

Monday one of the horses from the Riding academy on Lincoln-st broke loose and ran up on the hill. It found a very good place to take a roll in a garden, all planted and part of it up, on Orange-st. This is the second time this has happened and the people are pretty mad.

PLAN BETTER MACHINERY TO COMBAT BOLL WEEVIL

By Associated Press

Chicago— Plans to defeat the boll weevil and help restore prosperity to southern farmers by speeding up of their farming system, were outlined here recently by the National Institute of Progressive Farming.

The institute believes, after an investigation of the evil that yearly causes so much loss to cotton growers, that the best means of combatting it is in the introduction of farm machinery to replace what it terms the "one-mule-and-a-colored-hand system. Cooperation with agricultural colleges and experiment stations, county agents, chambers of commerce and agricultural high schools is planned in introducing higher mechanical standards.

"Prof. G. H. Alford, formerly with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and a prominent agriculturist, has summed up the boll weevil problem by saying, it is possible to defeat it with intensive cultivation.

"Early fall plowing buries the pests before cool weather drives them off the fields to seek hibernating quarters for the winter," he says. Cotton yields per acre have been downward for the last sixteen years, last year being the lowest recorded. Larger farms and plantations manned with fewer and more highly skilled laborers and improved machinery, appears to be a solution.

"While the average Iowa farm is equipped with $1,449 worth of machinery and the average farm of the north and west carries about $1,000 worth, the cotton belt farm has but $215, and depends largely upon one-horse tools and hand labor."

ON THE SCREEN

"TRIFLING WOMEN," DRAMATIC PHOTOPLAY

Rex Ingram's claim to film immortality is justified again in his remarkable new production, "Trifling Women," which comes today to the Elite theatre for a three day engagement. It is the latest achievement of the skillful director, whose name has become synonymous with the best in filmdom, and a guarantee of exceptional screen merit. It equals and, in some particulars, surpasses his earlier efforts, and should win a high place among the best of the season's photoplays.

The brilliant director of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other big Metro pictures, is himself both author and adaptor of his latest success. This fact makes his triumph all the more complete, for the story and continuity are on a par with the production itself. In all, it is a distinctly worthwhile photodrama, and it is recommended to those who want the best in their motion picture fare.

The story is concerned with the fascination of Zareda, a crystal gazer, whose siren-like fascination attracts men into her net. How she attains wealth and power through a marriage with a wealthy Marquis; how she arranges his death to marry her young lover, Ivan; how she meets a terrible end with her lover when her husband finds them together, makes a graphic and damatic story.

In the cast are brilliant players. Lewis Stone is seen as the Marquis Ferroni; Barbara La Mar as Zareda; Ramon Novarro as Ivan, and Edward Connelly as Ivan's father, Baron de Maupin. Others in the cast are Pomeroy Cannon, Hughie Mack. The fine photography is the work of John F. Seitz.

WOMEN STUDENTS EXCEL MEN IN PAYING BILLS

London—The answer to the question of whether women have a higher moral sense than men will be found in the affirmative if the experience of the Carnegie Trust for the universities of Scotland is taken as a deciding factor. The trust undertakes to provide funds for students wishing to enter colleges, and though they are under no obligation, they are expected to repay what money they can.

Sir David Prain, at a recent meeting of the trustees, said that the number of women students who repaid their fees during 1922 was considerably larger than the number of men.

Last year 39 former students repaid 1,387 pounds to the fund, making the total amount repaid 12,500 pounds, or one and a third per cent of the money advanced.

Choose Furniture That Will Make A "Home"

A home of one's own is a universal aspiration. Nothing short of it satisfies the homing instinct strong in us all. Yet four walls do not make a home. It is the loving thought put into the house, expressed in the decoration, the pictures, the furnishings, that invests it with the "home" quality.

The furniture which graces the well-appointed home of today echoes a silent yet eloquent tribute to the cabinet makers of olden times.

"Good taste" demands perfect harmony in home furnishings. No matter what style or period a room is furnished in, you may obtain furniture that will harmonize perfectly from

FLOWING GOLD

By REX BEACH

COPYRIGHT 1922 BY REX BEACH
PRINTED BY ARRANGEMENT WITH METROPOLITAN NEWSPAPER SERVICE, NEW YORK

Gray endeavored to learn the nature of Pa's recently acquired eccentricities, but Allie was flushing and paling as a result of her sudden excursion into the audible. Eventually she trembled upon the verge of speech once more, then she took another desperate plunge.

"He says folks are going to laugh at us or with us, and—and rich people have got to act rich. They got to be elegant." She laughed loudly, abruptly, and the explosive nature of the sound startled her as greatly as it did her hearer. "He's got to get somebody to teach Buddy and me how to behave."

Now that the girl was beginning to lose her painful embarrassment, she showed to somewhat better advantage and no longer impressed him, as bovine, stolid, almost stupid.

"First off, Ma and me are goin' over to Dallas to do some tradin'," the girl was saying. "After that we're goin' to the mountains."

"Your mother mentioned the mountains."

"Yep. Her and Pa have allus been crazy about mountains, but they never seen 'em. That's how me and Buddy came to be named Allegheny and Ozark. But we never expected to see 'em. The drought burned us out too often."

Gus Briskow was a sandy, angular man; a ring of air holes cut in the crown of his faded felt hat showed a head of hair faded to match the color of his headgear; his greasy overalls were tucked into boots, and a ragged Joseph's coat covered his flannel shirt.

He came directly in to greet his visitor, then said: "I never expected you'd come 'way out here an' bring your plunder with you. Ma says you got a hull gripful o' diamonds."

"I have, indeed." Gray pointed to the glittering display still spread out upon the varicolored counterpane.

Briskow approached the bed and gazed curiously, silently down at the treasure, then his face broke into a sunshiny smile. He wiped his hands upon his trousers legs and picked up a ring. But instead of examining the jewel, he looked at the price mark, after which his smile broadened.

Ozark had entered behind his father, and his sister introduced him now. He was a year or two younger than Allegheny, but cast in the same heroic mold.

The elder Briskow spoke first, and it was evident that he feared to betray lack of conservatism, for he said, with admirable restraint:

"Likely-lookin' lot of trinkets, eh, Bud?"

Bud grunted. After a moment he inquired of Gray, "How much is that hull lot wuth, Mister?"

"Close to a hundred thousand dollars."

Brother and sister exchanged glances; the father considered briefly, smilingly, then he said, "With oil at three an' a quarter, it wouldn't take long for a twelve-hundred barlier to get the hull caboodle, would it?"

"Is your well producing twelve hundred barrels a day?"

"Huh!" Briskow, junior, grinned at his sister, exposing a mouth full of teeth as white and as sound as railroad crockery, but his next words were directed at Gray: "We got four wells and the p'orest one is making twelve hundred bar'l."?

The guests' mental calculations as to the Briskow royalties were interrupted by an announcement that dinner was ready, whereupon the father announced:

"Mister, it looks like you'd have to stay overnight with us, 'cause I got important business after dinner an' I wouldn't trust Ma to pick out no jewelry by herself—them prices would skeer her to death. We're ignorant people and we ain't used to spendin' money, so it'll take time for us to make up our minds. Kin you wait?"

"I'll stay as long as you'll keep me," Gray declared heartily.

A moment later, having learned that a place at the table had been set for his driver as well as himself, Gray stepped out to summon the man and to effect the necessary change in his arrangements. He was not surprised to find the chauffeur with nose flattened against a pane of the front-room window, his hands cupped over his eyes. Ignoring the fellow's confusion at being discovered, Gray told him of his change of plan and instructed him to drive back to Ranger and to return late the following afternoon. Then he led the way toward the kitchen.

That stay at the Briskows' turned out to be less irksome than the visitor had anticipated, for the afternoon was spent with Buddy examining the Briskow wells and others near by.

They got along together swimmingly; in fact, they grew thicker than thieves in the course of time. The elder man soon became conscious of the fact that he was being studied, analyzed, even copied—the sincerest form of flattery—and it pleased his vanity.

When Gray offered him a cigaret, Buddy rudely took the gold case out of his hand and examined it, then he laughed in raucous delight.

"Gosh! I never knew men had purty things. I—I'm goin' to get me one like that."

"Do you like it?"

"Gee! It's swell!"

"Good! I'll make you a present of it."

Buddy stared at the speaker in speechless surprise.

"Nobody never give me a present," Buddy said. "Not one that I wanted. I never had nothing that I didn't have to have and couldn't get along without. This cigaret case is worth more'n all the stuff I ever owned, an' I'm sure obliged to you." He replaced the article in Gray's hand.

"Eh? Won't you accept it? Why not?"

"I—Oh, I dunno."

Gray pondered this refusal for a moment before saying, "Perhaps you think I'm trying to make a good impression on you, so you'll buy some diamonds?"

"Mebbe." Buddy averted his eyes. He was in real distress.

"Um-m! I ought to punch your head." Gray slipped the case into young Briskow's packet. "I don't have to bribe people. Some day you'll realize that I like you."

"Honest?"

"Cross my heart."

The boy laughed in frank delight, his brown cheeks colored, his eyes sparkled. "Gosh!" said he. "I—like you!" For some time thereafter he remained red and silent, but he kept one big hand in the pocket where lay the gold cigaret case. There was a wordless song in Buddy Briskow's heart, for—he had made a friend. And such a friend! Gray made his conquest doubly secure by engaging the young Behemoth in a scuffle and playfully putting him on his back. Defeat, at other hands than Gray's, would have enraged Ozark to the point of frenzy, it would have been considered by him an indignity and a disgrace. Now, however, he looked upon it as a natural and wholly satisfactory demonstration of his idol's supreme prowess, and he roared with delight at being bested.

They were red in the fact, out of breath, and soaked with perspiration, when Pa Briskow drove up in his expensive new touring car.

By this time Buddy's admiration had turned to adulation; he had passed under the yoke and he gloried shamelessly in his captive state. At supper time he appeared with his hair wetly combed in imitation of Gray's. He wore a necktie, too, and into he had fastened a cheap brass stickpin, much as Gray wore his.

Pa Briskow was scarcely less observant than his son. He watched Gray's every move; he sounded him out adroitly; he pondered his lightest word. After the supper things had been cleared away and the dishes washed, the entire family adjourned to the front room and again examined the jewelry. It was an absorbing task, they did not hurry it. Not until the following afternoon, in fact, did they finally make their selection. The check was one of five figures.

When it drew near the time for Gray to leave, and he announced that the driver of his hired car had been instructed to return for him, there was protest, loud and earnest, from the Briskows, father and son. Buddy actually sulked at being denied the pleasure of driving his hero to town in the new car.

Pa Briskow was worried for the security of the diamonds, and assured Gray that it was unsafe to trust those service-car drivers.

But the latter, seeing a threat to his carefully matured plans, refused to listen. "There's one thing you can do for me," he told them. "You can give me a pint of cream."

"Cream? What for?" The family regarded him with amazement.

"I'm fond of it. If you have no cream, milk will do."

"Pshaw! I'll put up a hull basket of lunch for you," Mrs. Briskow declared. "Buddy, go kill a rooster, an' you Allie, get them eggs out of the nest in the garden, an' a jar of them peach preserves, while I make up a pan of biscuits."

Protest was unavailing.

When the others had hurried away, Pa Briskow said: "I been studyin' you, Mister Gray, and I got you down as a first-class man. When Ma and Allie come over to Dallas to get rigged out, I'd like you to help 'em. They 'ain't never been fa'ther from home than Cisco—that's thirty miles. I'll pay you for your time."

Slip Covers Are Pretty When They Are Well Fitted

In addition to being beautiful in line and wood, furniture should be well dressed. Much of the charm of a chair is due to the kind and color of its upholstery. When the time comes to protect this against the inroads of sun and dust, one may still have a colorful and inviting room, cool and restful in effect, with chairs and sofas quite as attractive in their summer dress of prim glazed chintz or linen as they were in the more formal attire of damask and brocade.

Slip covers are used for three reasons. To protect beautiful silks or satins from dust and a summer sun, to cover ugly pieces of furniture, and, lastly, for their own sheer decorativo value and as a change from the furnishings of the winter.

The first requisite of a slip cover is that it shall fit well. The most beautiful fabric in the world is of very little account if it is made into an ugly, ill fitting cover. It is easy enought for slip covers to look dowdy. Great care must be taken in the making if they are to have the smart, prim appearance that makes them such a gay addition to a room. It is much the same with a slip cover as with a tailored frock. Everything depends on the finishing. Only the most careful attention to detail—to stitching the seams absolutely straight, to turning the corners in the most precise manner, to seeing that the flounces are straight, and, if box pleated, that the pleats are exactly the same width, insures a well tailored look and not that fatal "made at home" appearance.

TRIAL PATTERN

Good upholsters cut slip covers right on the furniture and it is impossible to lay down any hard and fast rule as to how to cut them. Each piece of furniture must be fitted quite as carefully as one fits a frock to a person. If expensive material is used, it is a good plan to cut the cover first in muslin. Pin this all together carefully, allowing enough for seams and in the case of an upholstered sofa or chair, about five inches on either side and in the back to tuck in. This is the time to correct the mistakes When the cover fits perfectly, cut the chintz from this pattern. Where there is a figured design great care must be taken to center the pattern. For instance, if there is a basket of flowers or some one decided motif, this should be in the center of the back of the chair and in the center of the seat cushion. And all designs in fabrics should point upwards. Slip covers can be put on and taken off more easily if they are slit up the back and fastened with snappers.

For the ordinary type of 6-foot sofa it takes 11½ yards of 50-inch plain material to make a slip cover. In a figured fabric about 13 yards are required. This includes either a box pleated or gathered ruffle around the bottom. If one perfers a slip cover without this ruffle, three yards less of material are needed. These valances around the bottom give a certain snap to a chair and usually measure seven inches wide. If box pleated, the pleats are two inches wide, and the whole ruffle is from one inch to two inches from the floor. In measuring for a box pleated ruffle, allow three times the length of the space the ruffle is to occupy. For a gathered ruffle about two and one-half times. If the seams are corded in a contrasting color, three-quarters of a yard of 50-inch material are needed and one yard of 36-inch. I would suggest a prim, pleated ruffle on all furniture except that intended for a man's room. The covers here will be smarter and more masculine if they are strictly tailored and made to extend to the top of the chair leg and then bound with some contrasting color.

VARIETY OF MATERIALS

It used to be customary in the case of a wooden chair with an upholstered seat to cover the entire chair with a slip cover. This is both ugly and unnecessary. Covers can be made just to fit the seats, snapping together in the back. These can be made in three ways, the piece around the bottom cut perfectly straight, and bound, scalloped and bound or box pleated.

Slip covers are made of a variety of materials. Chintz is the natural selection on account of the variety and beauty of its design, its fresh, gay appearance and low price as compared to silks. Linen has a more pleasing texture, wears better, but is also more expensive. It is more formal in character and has not the cool, crisp appearance of glazed chintz.—House and Garden.

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON

DEAR SYD:

I hope you can understand, old chap, what you have done. Or perhaps I hope I can make you understand what my guilty conscience has done, as you would put it.

I do not think Leslie will ever forgive me. And it all came about that letter you wrote me and which I received this morning.

There was nothing in it but the various commonplaces, nothing that anyone might not read, but you see, old fellow, I could not be sure that you would not say something in the letter about the one I wrote you in which I told you of my interview with Leslie's father.

Leslie had not known that I had even written to you and when she—in the innocence of her heart—thinking that the letter was in answer to the postal she sent you, tore open the envelope, before I thought I snatched it from her. Then, of course, I had to play out the game as I had dealt the cards.

I will not deny, Syd, that I was angry, very angry. I don't think it is any woman's business, whether she is your wife, your mother, your stenographer or your mistress, to open your personal mail.

I expect I told this to Leslie in a very cruel manner for she ended by demanding the letter from me that she might read its contents

If I had had any sense, knowing you had made no illusion whatever to anything compromising, I would have given it to her then and there, but I was too furious The matter ended by me dramatically striking a match and trying to burn the d—— thing before her eyes.

Leslie made a dive for the burning letter which in the meantime had dropped on the carpet Notwithstanding it was blazing she tried to pick it up and, in consequence, burned her hand very badly.

Think of it, Syd, that dear little hand, the hand she had just given me trustingly in token of her devotion as a wife is perhaps maimed and crippled because of my cursed temper. Call me a brute if you want to. You cannot call me anything worse than I have called myself.

I do not deserve such a wife as Leslie. Even when I knew that her hand was burned I did not stop to comfort her. In finedish rage I watched that letter burn and then I rushed out and did not return until late in the afternoon. I found when I arrived that the doctor had been called to dress Leslie's hand which was badly burned and that she was sleeping under an opiate.

Nice way for a man to end his honeymoon, isn't it?"

I am entirely to blame for its debacle. First, for thinking that you would be so devilishly indiscreet as to write me anything compromising and, secondly, for intimating to the sweetest little girl on earth that she was doing anything wrong in opening any and all my letters.

We are beasts, all of us, Syd, we me. We attribute the motives and lack of principle that are ours to the women we marry.

God knows what I am going to do to bring back Leslie's faith in me

Tonight I am groveling in the dust and with the perversity of human nature I am even hating you just a little, old chap, as being the cause, although innocent, of all this trouble.

SOUP

Left-over gravy makes a good starting point for soup. Dilute it to proper consistency, season, add any left-over vegetable or even a spoonful of cereal from breakfast which will thicken it somewhat. Simmer for a couple of hours, strain, add croutons or noodles and serve.

Here's a popular way to serve Kellogg's Bran—greatest health food!

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream. Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nut-like flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method:—Measure off two tablespoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regulatory powers are in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must have is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

Nancy Learns To Fly

When Nick flew away in his airplane and did not come back, Nancy began to worry.

"I can't imagine what has happened!" she said to the Tinker Man.

"He must have been taken prisoner," said the Tinker Man.

Which was exactly what had happened, for Nick's airplane had been shot down by the tin soldiers and he had been put into prison and his Magic Shoes taken away.

"I'll have to go and hunt for him," cried Nancy. "I'll be a spy."

"I kno a better way still," suggested the Tinker Man. "I have another airplane here that was intended for the tin soldiers. But they haven't got it yet and you may use it if you wish, to go and look for Nick. But you must be careful not to let them shoot at you or you'll either fall and be killed or taken prisoner like Nick."

"I'll be careful—very," promised Nancy.

So she took off her Red Cross nurse uniform and the Tinker Man gave her an aviator's uniform—cap, goggles and all, and soon she was learning all about flying.

"I think you'll do now," said the Tinker Man. "You may go and hunt for your lost twin."

Suddenly Nancy had another idea. "Have you got any gas bombs?" she asked "Not dangerous ones."

"Hundreds!" answered the Tinker Man. "They are in the store house. What do you want them for?"

"I'll drop them out of my airplane and the tin soldiers will be gassed before they can put on their gas masks. Then I can land and look for Nick and let him out of prison if he is there."

"All right, I'll get you some sleeping bombs," said the Tinker Man. "They only put people to sleep and don't eally hurt them."

SAVE BREAD

All crumbs, all bits of bread and heels of loaves should be dried thoroughly, ground fine with a bread roller or through a meat chopper and turned into a glass jar. They may be used for breading cutlets, making pan cakes, may be substituted for potatoes in hash and are better than cracker crumbs.

BEWARE OF FOE REACHING FOR HEART OF U. S.

McGillan Exhorts Audience To Patriotism In Memorial Day Address

been observing this day by exercises like these. I have often wondered what is the thought in the minds of those who attend them. If it is only to refresh their memories and to hear the tales retold of the heroic men of our country, the lesson of patriotism is lost.

"The real lesson of patriotism is that the government that has given us so much has been preserved to us only by the suffering and death and patriotism of the century and a half of young men; it is to dedicate ourselves again to their work; it is to come to a deeper realization of our responsibilities and to thank God for the blessings he has bestowed upon this nation."

UNSELFISH AMERICA

The most striking thing in the history of the American nation, as conceived by Mr. McGillan is the fact that in all her military struggles she has shown herself unselfish. Her glory is in the creed expounded in the Declaration of Independence, that "government derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

In the course of his address Mr. McGillan showed how America adhered to its ideals in its attitude in the Spanish-American war, the Boxer rebellion in China, the World war and in America's refusal to recognize the Mexican government.

After relating how shortly before the World war he had warned of the great conflict, he prophesied another conflict within the nation, the foe of pacifism.

BOLSHEVISM ACTS

"Legislation such as the abolition of the national guard is bolshevik," he declared. "Those who are trying to destroy the government you trust and love would first get rid of the national guard. Had there been a national guard in Herren, that awful blot on the history of the United States which even the central powers would not have been capable of, would never have happened.

"This foe is more dangerous than the foe in Flanders' fields. They were brave men, fighting for a cause which they believed was right. Ask the men who have come back whether their enemies were cowards.

"To fight this foe, we need no fascisti. We have the American legion. The legion and the Spanish-American war veterans and the men of the G. A. R. have earned their right to be defenders of the flag and of the institutions of this country and to be upholders of this government. If need be, but only as a last resort, men of the American legion will answer the call of their brothers in Flanders' fields, 'To you from flaming hands we throw the torch.' "

BEG PARDON

In reporting scores of the registered shooting tournament at Appleton Angling and Shooting club park on Sunday, the name of William Falatick was omitted. He scored 38 hits in 50 shots.

Captain Patrick Vaughn of the Appleton police force wishes to correct a news article appearing in Monday's Post-Crescent which stated that Dr. H. E. Ellsworth, coroner, could not be located to investigate the death of Nicholas Orth in the Washington house.

According to the police report, John A. Lonsdorf, district attorney, could not be located, but Dr. Ellsworth was notified. It was Dr. W. C. Felton, city health officer, who pronounced the death to be due to heart disease.

PERSONALS

Harwood Finkle, 542 Washington-st, has disposed of his interests in the Wilson Finkle electric shop to his partner, John D. Wilson. Mr. Wilson will continue the business.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

MAY COME TO U. S. TO TAKE PICTURES FOR GHOST PROOF

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

London—Can William Hope, famous ghost photographer, be induced to visit America to let science test his extraordinary power?

"I'm sick of tests," says the man whose remarkable spirit pictures form the backbone of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's lectures on spiritualism.

Doyle is going to America in April. And now J. Malcolm Bird, secretary of the American committee of judges who will preside at official tests conducted by the Scientific American, is in England endeavoring to persuade Hope to go to New York and submit to the $5000 test.

Hope says the money award doesn't interest him. He earns his living in the factory town of Crewe as a picture frame maker. When he takes photographs he charges a fee only large enough to pay for time and materials.

"We cannot command the spirits," Hope says. "Sometimes, when they are in the mood, they make use of me. I am a 'sensative.' Then, strangely, a picture of a dead relative, or an utter stranger, appears on the plate.

"But it does no good to make tests. I have had them time after time. Those who see the tests are convinced. Other people go right on doubting."

Hope is a little, elderly man with blue eyes, gray hair and the accent of the Lancashire worker. All his ghost pictures are taken with an old-fashioned camera. He said he discovered his strange power 30 years ago when, with a gift camera, he took a picture of a fellow worker standing in the sunlight against a brick wall. When he developed the plate there was the outline of a woman standing beside his friend. The transparent figure showed the bricks of the wall. He thought the plate had been exposed before, but when he showed it to his friend the latter turned pale and said the misty figure was that of his sister who had been dead many years.

"Later I took another picture of him," said Hope, "and this time the same woman appeared, but with her little dead baby in her arms."

Hope knew nothing of spiritualism then. But later he read books on the subject and began experiments in company with Mrs. Ada Buxton, a medium.

"This," he said, "is my method: You come for a sitting. Four or five of us, including Mrs. Buxton and me, sit around a table on which is placed a packet of photographic plates sealed in the original wrapper, just as you brought it. We lay hands on the packet and sing a hymn. The packet is taken into a dark room, a plate is fitted into the camera, and after I have taken your picture, I remove the plate and develop it. You watch me all the time.

"Sometimes a ghostly picture is seen alongside yours. Sometimes not. I cannot guarantee the spirits. Time after time pictures appear of people, alive and dead, whose photographs it would have been impossible for me to obtain. I cannot explain my powers. Let science worry about that."

CHINA TO STOP SENDING STUDENTS TO JAPAN

By Associated Press

Tokio—The Chinese government has decided to discontinue the system of sending students to Japan at the government's expense, the provinces which contributed part of the money having been irregular in their payments.

At present there are in Tokio 127 Chinese students matriculating at the Tokio Imperial university; 158 at the Tokio higher normal school; 175 at the Tokio university of commerce; 1,170 at various other government schools, and 1,071 at various public and private schools. It is said that those Chinese students are, on the whole, not inferior to the Japanese either in scholarship or personality; and with a few exceptions are diligently taking to their studies.
